Military Delegate Sings First Solemn Mass At Air Field

(By N.C.W.C. News Service)

WASHINGTON — The first Solemn Mass in the new Bolling Field chapel here was celebrated Sunday by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis W. Walsh, Vicar Delegate of the Military Ordinariate.

The ceremony formally opening the chapel, first Air Corps chapel completed in the Army's current construction program, was held on Sunday, August 3, with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William R. Arnold, Chief of Army Chaplains, as the principal speaker.

At the Mass Sunday for which a military and civilian congregation filled the chapel to its capacity of 300, Monsignor Walsh was assisted by the Rev. Edward J. McTague, chaplain at the Army Medical Center, here, as deacon, and the Rev. Joseph F. Donoghue, chaplain at Bolling Field, as subdeacon. Music was provided by the choir of the nearby St. Francis Xavier's Church.

The sermon was preached by Father McTague. He called the prayer of the Pharisee in the day's Gospel a "declaration of independence against God," and expressed thanks to God that while some countries are engaged in a program of tearing down religion, this country is making every effort to "build up" religion in the hearts of its citizens.

Monsignor Walsh, speaking after the Mass, pointed to the interest the Church takes in all emergencies and her special efforts in the present emergency to sustain the spiritual life of the nation.

Besides Bolling Field soldiers, the service was attended by members of the Mother Duchesne Circle, who most to make vestments at Sacred Heart Convent here and have made many of the vestments used by Father Donoghue for Catholic services at Bolling Field.

Details Of Killing Of Priest In Shantung

PEKING.—Information has been received by Lumen Service here giving the details of the killing at Sino-lou, Shantung, of the Rev. Joseph Bayerle, S.V.D.

Father Bayerle was returning to the village from a neighboring mission, Chengwu, where he had gone to make his regular Confession. As he reached the outskirts he saw a group of armed men in the gray uniform of soldiers. Without warning several of the men fired at the priest, but he was not hit. The villagers, hearing the shooting, rushed to the armed band and told them Father Bayerle was their priest. The marauders refused to believe the villagers and accused the priest of being a spy.

One of them fired again and Father Bayerle was instantly killed. The body was taken to Chengwu, where a Solemn Requiem Mass was sung by the Very Rev. Frederick Huettermann, Superior of the Society of the Divine Word in the Taikia sector.

Catholic Corporal Wins Defense Cross

LONDON.—First Catholic to win the George Cross recently established honor ranking with the Victoria Cross and awarded for civil defense work—is Corporal James Patrick Scully who comes from Dublin and who is serving in the Pioneer Corps on Merseyside.

Corporal Scully and an officer supported on their shoulders for several hours an immense load of debris to save an injured woman trapped below it. The man forced his way into the ruins of a house and found a man dead and his wife injured. He put steel helmets over their heads to protect them and as the house slowly collapsed he and the officer took the weight to prevent the woman from being crushed. They held their burden from 11:30 at night till 6:30 next morning and after that Corporal Scully went to hospital for three weeks.

"Mother of Parishes"

Shanghai—St. Joseph's Church here, known as "the Mother of Parishes and reputed to be the oldest building in all the Concessions, observed its eighteth anniversary.

New Amarillo Bishop

The Rev. Laurence J. FitzSimon, Chancellor of the Archdiocese of San Antonio, has been named third Bishop of Amarillo. Bishop-elect FitzSimon succeeds the Most Rev. Robert E. Lucey, now Archbishop of San Antonio. He is a native of San Antonio and widely known in his home State as a civic leader. The Bishop-elect served in the Navy during the World War and is chaplain of the North Sea Mine Force Association. (N.C.W.C.)

St. Aloysius (Auburn)

RECORD CROWD AT BANQUET

Previous attendance records were shattered on Thursday evening, August 7th, when one hundred and forty members of the Rosary and Scapular Society and Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Aloysius Church gathered at Springside Inn for their annual banquet.

Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor, opened the evening's program with a prayer. Miss Bernice Hickey, Chairman, also acting in the role of toast mistress welcomed all those present, and expressed her appreciation to the members of the various committees who had cooperated to make the banquet a success.

Community singing was enjoyed during the dinner. Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Betty Shamon, Mrs. Wm. H. Meagher, and Mrs. Bernardine Sullivan, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Diehl.

Mr. Edward Shamon, a student at St. Bernard's Seminary, was the guest speaker of the evening. Mr. Shamon strongly impressed the fact that the world in these troubled times must depend in a large measure upon the stability of Christian womanhood and its relation to the preservation of world peace.

Father Crowley then commended the members of both societies for their support in all undertakings, especially in regard to their spiritual obligations.

Miss Barbara Jean Lawler entertained with a novelty song and dance number, accompanied by her brother, Master Donald Lawler.

The evening closed with the singing of "Holy God," by the entire assemblage.

Sodalists Given Work Chart For Defense

ST. LOUIS—The 1941-1942 Work Chart for Sodalists lists a number of ways for Sodalists to assist the national defense program.

Published by The Queen's Work, here American Sodality secretariate the new chart which encompasses 12 monthly programs of activities, beginning with October, emphasizes that "the best and only permanent defense is a spiritual defense."

"This year," the chart says, "we are urging the Sodalities to co-operate as fully as possible in the defense program of the National Catholic Community Service, an integral part of the United Service Organization, and in any other defense programs which are sound. In the Work Chart, month by month, there are various defense suggestions for the different committees."

Service Men To See Irish Hurling Matches

SAN FRANCISCO.—Men in the uniform of the United States Army, Navy and Marine Corps are to be guests of honor at the intersectional Irish football and hurling matches between Los Angeles Hollywood and San Francisco Oakland teams, to be played at Kezar stadium, Sunday afternoon, August 10, State President James Cummins of the Gaelic Athletic Association announced.

The games will be preceded by a patriotic pageant, with scores of uniformed fraternal, civic and veterans drill teams, patrols, bands and marching organizations participating.
