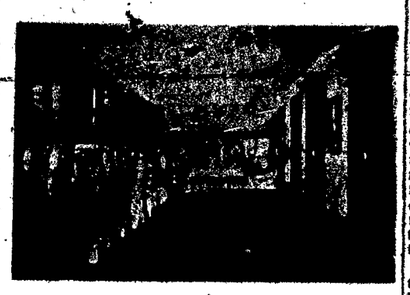
DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING SERVICES HELD IN THIS CHAPEL



This after scene and interior view are of St. Francis DeSales Chapel in St. Joseph's Hall on Franklin Street where special services are held for the handicapped. It is to provide funds for this special apostolate that the Social Justice Club party is being conducted Sept. 27 at St. Boniface Hall.

Catholic Deaf Will Benefit From Party Set Sept. 27

The Social Justice Club of Rochester is sponsoring an entertainment and Dance on Saturday evening, Sept. 27 at St. Boniface Hall, Whalen St. at 8:30 sharp, for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing work of the Diocese of Rochester.

These unfortunate people receive their spiritual welfare under the guidance of the Rev. William A. Doherty, C.SS.R., Chaplain of St. Francis DeSales Chapel, which is located in St. Joseph's School Hall on Franklin St. Father Doherty is assisted in this work by the Rev. Gerard Kuhn, C.SS.R. They minister to the needs of the Deaf Mutes and the Hard of Hearing of the entire Diocese of Rochester.

The Chapel was established on June 7, 1931, with Episcopal authority. The Chapel affords the deaf every spiritual aid that the hearing people enjoy and it is also equipped with hearing aids enabling the Hard of Hearing to hear sermons and to facilitate Confession. To this Chapel the Catholic children attending the Rochester School for the Deaf are entrusted. The Chapel furnishes the transportation to and from the School for Sunday and Holyday Masses and for religious instructions. They are also prepared for First Communion and Confirmation.

Rudolph C. Schwenser, general chairman and his Committee are anxious to make this party a success. Tickets can be obtained by calling Mr. Schwenser at Glenwood 7800-J, Mr. J. Guerinot at Glenwood 2281-W, Mr. Finnegan at Stone 3648 or Mr. U. Kraus at Main 300, St. Joseph's Rectory, 160 Franklin Street.

Cinema Comments

they would eliminate or cut down dual features; eliminate games and giveaways; use more good shorts; survey the film tastes of their locality—Amy H. Croughton, of the Rochester Times-Union, mentioned this and commented on the opportunity for exhibitors to know what they are getting, furnished by the Consent Decree; revive old, but still good, pictures. Critic-exhibitors also offered some dozen other comments.

If critics were given a chance to act as advertising-publicity directors, they would be more truthful; use fewer superlatives; de-emphasize sex in advertisements and publicity; use more ad space in newspapers; campaign to bring back former movie fans who have drifted out of the habit of movie-going for one reason or another.

If critics were producers — and find one who doesn't think he could do as fine a job as the current crop, if he only had a chance. The majority of critics, including George L. David, of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, would seek better story material . . . would not gamble with skimpy, ordinary stories. Other suggestions are to make fewer and better pictures; to include less propaganda and war material and less flag-waving—a suggestion which is being discussed by other groups than the critics; put more reliance on experienced writers and directors; when casting, diversify roles and stop changing characters to fit actors; be more original and not follow cycles; make more better-type shorts; remake fewer old pictures; use more color.

This column submitted several of the above suggestions to the of the above suggestions to the Film Daily Critics' Forum. And the Forum seems like another successful venture for the Film Daily—the paper which furnishes one of the closest links between the men who make the movies, the men who exhibit them and those ink-stained wretches who write about them.

(John Springer reminisces about popular pictures of the past on Your Movie Memory, heard over WSAY every Monday morning at 11. This week's reminiscences will be about the Helen Hayes-Robert Montgomery drama, "Vanessa.")

St. George's Parish

Junior Holy Name Election

Junior Holy Name Society of St. George's School held its first meeting of the scholastic, and during this session elected new officers. Newly elected are: Edward Brown, president; Richard Sherwin, vice-president; Victor Trilikauskas, secretary, and Elmer Mockavicius as treasurer.

Four new members enrolled with the organization at the same time, and they will be formally accepted through the rite of initiation.

The theme of the Junior Holy Name Society for this coming year has been determined for the endeavoring to maintain 100% Holy Communion reception throughout the year on every second Sunday of the month.

GEORGIAN CLUB

The young people of St. George's Parish will meet Friday, Sept. 19, to discuss plans for the Fall and Winter season. The Georgians will formulate a program for a supper in the near future, make arrangements for the completion of the renovation of the club room, name a nominating committee for the coming election of officers, and such necessary agenda for the welfare of the Georgian Club. All Georgians and young folk of the parish are invited to attend this meeting.

Catholic Softball Leagues

Knights of St. John

St. Eustace Commandery No. 39 of St. Joseph's Church won the pennant in the Knights of St. John League last Sunday at Genesee Valley Park when they defeated St. Michael's Commandery No. 40 of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in a post season game by the score of 6-3.

At the end of the regular playing season Commandery 39 and and Commandery 40 were deadlocked in first place, each having won eight games and losing two. Last Sunday's game broke the tie and determined the pennant winner.

LEAGUE STANDINGS
End of Season

	W	L	%
Commandery 39	9	2	.818
Commandery 40	8	3	.727
Commandery 308	3	7	.300
Commandery 43	1	3	.250
Commandery 25	2	8	.200

As a result of winning the 1941 pennant, Commandery 39 receives the Colonel Frederick J. Wegman trophy. To retain possession of the Trophy, the champions must win it twice more. Commandery 40 already has two legs on the trophy having won the league pennant in 1939 and 1940.

Arrangements are being made for an inter-city series between Commandery 292 of Buffalo and Commandery 39 of Rochester to determine the 1941 Western New York Knights of St. John championship. Commandery 292 won the pennant in the Buffalo Regiment League, this year.

Win CYO Loop Title

The fast St. Stanislaus softball team won the cup in the C. Y. O. High School Softball League last Tuesday night at the Old U. of R. Field. They defeated the strong Precious Blood team by the score of 5 to 2 on the umpires' decision. The game was called because of darkness at the end of five and a half innings with Precious Blood leading by the score of 7 to 5. Precious Blood was the first team at bat and according to the official rules of softball the score reverts back to the end of the fifth inning and makes it a regulation game with the score five and two in favor of St. Stanislaus.

The winning pitcher was Merkey of St. Stanislaus who had three strikeouts and three bases on balls; Insalaco, the losing pitcher for Precious Blood, had two strikeouts and gave up four bases on balls.

Each week a six months membership is given for the best play of the week in the league and for the last half of the league schedule membership have been awarded to Quale of the Precious Blood team, Bartulo of St. Stanislaus, Wilkens of Holy Cross, Burns of St. Andrew, Murphy of Blessed Sacrament, Biondi of Precious Blood and Boehmer of St. Joseph.

The box score of the final play-off game that resulted in St. Stanislaus taking the trophy is as follows:

Interest High In K. C. Auriesville Pilgrimage

From the interest thus far shown, present indications are that there will be a record attendance at the fourth annual Pilgrimage to the Shrine of the Jesuit Martyrs at Auriesville, N. Y., conducted by the New York State Council of the Knights of Columbus, on Sunday, Sept. 21.

Circulars have been mailed to all of the 54,000 members of the Knights throughout the State, and a cordial invitation has been extended to them and likewise to the general public to participate in the Pilgrimage.

A special Pilgrimage train will leave Grand Central Station, New York City, at 7:20 A. M. and will arrive in time for Mass at the Shrine. A special train will also leave Buffalo at 5:45 A. M. The Buffalo train will stop at Batavia, Rochester, Newark (N. Y.), Syracuse, Oneida, Rome, Utica, Mohawk and South Little Falls.

Tickets may be procured from any New York Central Railroad agency.

His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester and Chaplain of New York State Council, Knights of Columbus, will be the Celebrant of the Mass.

Preacher of the day will be Rev Augustine Aylward, C.SS.R., of St. Alphonsus' Church, New York City.

One of the features of the Pilgrimage will be the award of the State Council's gold medallion for outstanding service in the field of Catholic Action. The custom of awarding a medal by the State Council was initiated in 1939. The recipient at that time was William P. Carney, reporter on the staff of the New York Times, for meritorious reporting of the Spanish Civil War.

Last year the Hon. Michael F. Walsh, past State Deputy and present Secretary of State of the State of New York, was awarded the medallion for outstanding service to Church and Order.

HOLY NAME MEN MEET

The Holy Name Society held its first meeting of the year last Monday evening in the school auditorium. Among the projects for the coming year was announced one in which some time during each meeting would be allowed to the members to give their views, opinions and reactions on subjects of current interest to the Church and to Catholics. This was begun at the first meeting and met with enthusiastic response from the men.

We wish to correct a mistake that appeared in last week's COURIER, announcing the Holy Name meeting. It was erroneously stated in the news sent to the paper that Frank Wolfe was the new president of the parish Holy Name Society. Mr. Wolfe is the recently elected head of the Diocesan Holy Name Union, while James Connolly, due to his reelection, continues in charge of the Society in Blessed Sacrament parish. Our apologies to both these men for the mistake.

Another meeting of those working on the Harvest Festival, Oct. 3, 4 and 5, is to be held on next Monday evening in the School Auditorium. Any further volunteers who may wish to offer their services will be gladly welcomed. The school children are working especially hard, doing their part to make the festival a success.

Due to the Union meeting of parish Sodalities to be conducted at St. Peter and Paul's on next Monday evening, the meeting of the Junior Sodality of our parish will take place a week from Monday instead of next week

The Senior Sodality will open its fall season with its first meeting on next Wednesday evening This will be a supper meeting in the Church hall at 6:30. The officers elected last May will preside for the first time at this meeting

Verein Units To Meet Sunday

To hear reports on the recent national and state conventions of the Catholic Central Verein of America and National Catholic Women's Union, a joint meeting of Rochester branches of both groups will be held Sunday, Sept. 21, at St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin Street.

The meeting will open at 2:30 P. M. Plans for continuation of holding two meetings of the Rochester Branch, Catholic Central Verein a month will be made. Purpose of the extra meeting a month is to provide more time for discussing and analyzing the resolutions adopted at the 1941 conventions and to discuss and take action on vital questions of the days

Strive for justice for thy soul and even unto death fight for justice, and God will overthrow thy enemies for thee.
