Aquinas 12 DeSales 0

By STAUD and SCHMITT

The Aquinas football team will open its home season against Holy Family High of Auburn on Sunday, Oct. 6, at Edgedale Park.

Last year the Maroon and White team won by a touchdown in the closing minutes of play in Auburn.

This year's game should prove another thrill, as Aquinas and Holy Family are both well coached.

Last Sunday the football season at Aquinas got underway with a huge excursion to Geneva. Coach Sullivan's warriors proved too strong for the smaller De Sales squad and won a hard-fought 12-0 victory.

Coach Sullivan's warriors proved too strong for the smaller De Sales squad and won a hard-fought 12-0 victory.

A crowd of over 1,300 enthusiastic Rochester fans accompanied the team on a special train. The colorfully decorated band under the direction of Mr. Hasenauer led the huge crowd with their maneuvers at half-time.

Holy Family 20 St. Anthony's 0

As a preparation for its meeting with the Aquinas Institute team in Rochester, Holy Family High School of Auburn vanquished St. Anthony of Padua team from Syracuse 20-0 in the curtain raiser last Sunday.

Quinn was the scorer of the day with a pair of touchdowns and a pass, Flynn to Goya, brought the third score.

Holy Family looked very strong as they flashed clever plays to catch the opposition unprepared. They played head-up ball and incidentally, scored their first touchdown when Quinn recovered a team fumble to race across yard.

Warwick also intercepted a pass to put the Auburn team in scoring position.

'Quiz Kid' Candidate Sought Here

Search for a Rochester child to appear on the nationwide radio program, "The Quiz Kids," is being undertaken today by the producers of the program in cooperation with Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Co.

The boy or girl selected to represent Rochester will receive a free trip to Chicago, accompanied by a parent or guardian, will appear on a regular broadcast as a participant, and will be given a $100 U. S. Defense Bond. In addition, his classroom, as well as those of the other four finalists in the competition will be given a radio.

To participate in the competition for the trip and the appearance, Wendelgas is St. Mauritius' head man.

The league welcomed the visit of Ed Daley, of Cleveland, who is making his home here in Rochester.

The Knights of St. John League's highlights will be broadcast over Station WSAW every Friday evening, at 8:30 P. M. through the courtesy of Carl Chamberlain.

Officers of the league are: Emil G. Eckert, president; Harry Sigrist, vice-president; Charles H. Mura, secretary; and Edmund Kmitel, treasurer. Charles Mura will be the league representative to the Rochester Bowling Association.

SODALTALK

The Rochester Parish Sodality Union with Florence Deltrich as president, began the new year with the regular monthly meeting held last Monday at St. Peter and Paul's Parish Hall.

According to all reports the Summer Sodality Action was just as wonderful in 1941 as in previous years. Elizabeth Vogel of Holy Ghost Parish, Coldwater, attended the Boston BSCA and in just check-full of brand new ideas.

At the first meeting of the newly organized district commissioner's staff, at the home of Scout Commissioner Howard T. Cummings, announcement was made of the formation of a new Division to be known as the Geneva Division.

Catholic Troops that make up the division include Troop 22, of the Charles Street Settlement; Troop 10 of St. Anthony of Padua; and Troop 12 of Holy Family. William J. Hill will act as District Commissioner.

The calendar of events of the Rochester Council for the month of October was recently published. It includes: October 6, 13, 20, 27 - American Red Cross First Aid Course at the Board of Health, for Scouts and Scouters.

October 11 - "Cubbers confab," at Warren Cutler. October 15 - Eagle Board of Review at Scout Office.

October 13, 20, 27 - Elements of Scouting at Brick Church Institute. October 13, 27 - Preparatory Course in Senior Scouting at Brick Church Institute.

October 15 - Wayne Executive Council Meeting. October 20 - Life Board of Review. October 25 - Overnight hike for Scouters taking the Elements of Scouting Course.

October 27 - Executive Board Meeting of the Rochester Council. Under the direction of Senior Patrol Leader Lawrence Sasa, the Scouts of Troop 22, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, have launched a Fall paper drive. The Patrols of the Troop, under their respective patrol leaders, are canvassing the area.

Lost and Found! Camp Ranger Orville Neely has announced that he has a collection of various articles that accumulated during the summer months at Cutler. The rightful owners may get their articles from Neely on their next visit to camp.

19 CHANGES IN FACULTY OF NOTRE DAME ANNOUNCED

NOTRE DAME, Ind. — Faculty and administrative changes at the University of Notre Dame were announced today by the Very Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, C.S.C., president.

Twelve priest members of the Congregation of Holy Cross are included in the announcement, as are the names of seven laymen who are being added to the faculty.

The Rev. James D. Trahey has been named coordinator of all defense activities and the establishment of a Naval Reserve Officers' Training unit also was announced.

The naval instruction will be under the direction of Capt. Henry Poynter Burnett and three other associates. Approximately 165 students will be admitted to the unit during the first year. In addition to integrating the naval training with the regular university curriculum, Father Trahey will also supervise activity of the Civilian Control Training Corps and the adult night training courses for defense workers.
