Cinema Comments

Hope, Abbott and Costello, make the most of it. "You'll Never Get Rich" finds Mr. Astaire still an adroit comedian and still the most delightful of dancers. His gets' good assistance in this life from Rita Hayworth, who is much more up to the job than was the last Astaire partner, Paulette Goddard. Then there is Robert Benchley in his best comic vein as a would-be wolf, Fricka Incurat, ever lovingly lends distinction to an unworthy role. Add to them the double talk of Cliff Nazario plus good supporting jobs by Marjorie Gaiterson, Guinn "Big Boy" Donnan, MacBride, John Hubbard and Osa Massen. Still in one of Cole Porter's most melodious musical scores and you have "You'll Never Get Rich" in a which dancing, music and comedy combine to make a thoroughly amusing picture.
