After the meeting, the members were entertained by the Rev. The Rev. War Relief Collection

DENVER — A collection for the relief of war sufferers was taken up Sunday in all Colorado parishes in accordance with instructions from the Most Rev. Urban J. Vehr, Bishop of Denver.

"Faced with many and mounting appeals of indescribable misery from the war-torn, distressed peoples, particularly of Europe," Bishop Vehr said in announcing the collection in a letter to the clergy and laity, "and knowing that more appeals would come in the future, the Bishops of the United States decided to ask for one large national collection so as to avoid the necessity of making special appeals in each case."
