

YOUTH and SPORTS

LITTLE MISSION AIDES FOOTBALL — BOWLING

WHERE TO BUY Preferred Business Firms

A listing of preferred business firms.

Bartholomew MILK — CREAM

GENERAL INSURANCE ERBERT F. ASHLEY CO.

ROOFING AND METAL WORK W. J. MEYER CO., INC.

Town Talk Bakery

False Teeth Kear, Slide or Slip?

Wear Rings GRAY'S

Ben Miller HARDWARE

DESK SETS HEINRICH SEIBOLD

Lapple's O. K. Bakery

LOANS OF $100-$200 $300 OR MORE on Your Own Signature

Bowling

Knights of Columbus

Steve Nicola's 213 was the winner of high honors in the Knights of Columbus League on Oct. 1. Just four pins behind was Tom Ward who rolled a 200 game. Nicola had the high three game total also when he topped the maples for 618.

There were plenty of 500's and over last week bowlers Nicola. Among them were Paul Fredmore, 607; Frank Toppo, 592; Clark Nikol, 588; Doc O'Neill, 583; Gene Axtell, 584; Schoeneman, 581; FitzPatrick, 578; Jimmy Sullivan, 576; Tom Kennedy, 571; Jimmy Ward, 568; Rocco, Natalie, 565; Jerry Walshart, 561; Cy Matt, 560; and Warren Hill, 560.

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	Wins	Loss
Kilgus	8	0
Clayton	5	1
St. John's	4	2
Puritan	3	2
Plinius	2	2
Nines	1	5
Pirata	0	6

Catholic League

(League of 1941, October 2)

Team	Wins	Loss
St. John's	10	0
St. Andrew's	8	2
St. Michael's	7	3
St. Patrick's	6	4
St. Mary's	5	5
St. Joseph's	4	6
St. Francis	3	7
St. Ignace	2	8
St. Vincent	1	9
St. Elizabeth	0	10

Head Coach Clem F. Crowe, of Xavier University, Cincinnati, has his family of nine children to assist him with his own "home work" on new plays. The Musketeer mentor has assembled a "Crowe-eleven," pictured in football formation.

FOOTBALL IS A FAMILY GAME HERE

Head Coach Clem F. Crowe, of Xavier University, Cincinnati, has his family of nine children to assist him with his own "home work" on new plays. The Musketeer mentor has assembled a "Crowe-eleven," pictured in football formation.

Holy Childhood Association Rev. John S. Randall DIRECTOR

My dear little Missionaries: The post certainly had something in the line, "Ye cannot rival for one hour October's bright blue weather."

October means the beautiful month of Our Lady's rosary; it means a holiday in honor of the discoverer of our country; it means collecting beautiful red and gold colored leaves, gathering shiny chestnuts and it means all the fun of ghosts and goblins that go with Halloween. All to little missionaries, October means in particular the month of the missions, for on October 19 the whole world celebrates in the celebration of Mission Sunday.

Have you ever stopped to notice, boys and girls, that Mission Sunday always comes during the beautiful harvest time. The idea of harvest is closely linked with our missionaries who are "harvesters for Christ." The harvest makes us think of the merry of God for the fruits of the orchards and the fields are certainly gifts of God in the strictest sense of the term. Things necessary for life are given to us not only adequately but even superabundantly. Millions of hungry men, women and little children, in these four mission countries, look with longing eyes to America as a land of plenty. Let us never give to them the answer of Cain, that we are not our brother's keeper. Let us be merciful, and mercy will be shown to us.

And, boys and girls, this year more so than ever before, let us not forget our missionary priests and sisters who are engaged in the sublime task of gathering souls for heaven. There is a fruitless task as far as the goods of this world are concerned; but of most importance they are saving for the Heart of Christ those souls whom He redeemed at a great price. They need our prayers and our support desperately.

Now, all of you loyal members of the Holy Childhood Association can do your share for Mission Sunday, both in a spiritual and in a material way. I beg of you to pray and pray hard. As a suggestion I would recommend a Novena to be said in your classroom. Make it to Our Lady, Queen of the Missions. You can start it on Saturday, October 11, and you will end it on Mission Sunday, October 19. And then, do you suppose it is asking too much to request that each grade try to ransom one little soul for Christ the King? What would be more consoling to the heart of Christ than to have another little soul brought to His feet.

Let's all join together then, to work and pray for the glorious cause of the Missions, the salvation of souls, the cause for which Our Divine Lord died on Calvary's Cross. Can you count on you not to let us down?

Sincerely yours,
FATHER RANDALL

NEWSWEEK

At St. Andrew's the boys and girls are not sitting back waiting for Mission Sunday to send in their ransoms. Already they are off to the glorious start that will rank them once again with the top notch mission leaders of the country. Listen to the story which the Fifth Grade West has to tell us this

'Henry Aldrich' Goes To Aquinas

Broadway's famous comedy "What a Life," the new famous story of Henry Aldrich, the typical American boy, will be presented by the students of Aquinas Institute in their Auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 14 and 15.

This riotous three-act comedy written with a fast and witty plot by Clifford Goldsmith, was produced on Broadway in 1928 by George Abbott noted for such farces as "Room Service" and "Three Men On A Horse."

Mr. Edwin J. Dolan will once again direct this year's production. It has been decided to carry out last year's precedent of having girls from the Catholic High Schools in the cast, and this will continue in the future.

The large cast is as follows:
Henry Aldrich, Lawrence Quigley, Barbara Pearson, Joanne Clark, Mr. Bradley, William A. Kraft, Mr. Nelson, John Regan, Mr. Patterson, Eugene Malley, Miss Shew, Kay MacDonald, George Bigelow, George Stand, Mr. Ferguson, Gerald Sullivan, Miss Wheeler, Shirley Jaeger, Mr. Vecchito, Tony Trapani, Miss Eggleston, Margaret Hammill, Miss Pike, Laura Louise Shaker, Miss Johnson, Joan Hayes.

Mrs. Aldrich, Florence Heltzer, Gerie Elaine Erbland, Bill Thomas, P. Mulhen, Mary Margaret Lewis.

The stage crew assisting Mr. Dolan will consist of Robert Ginn, Richard Crowley, John Church, Norman Ladd, Joseph Parina, Ed Moghenhan and Ed Bekirch.

Holy Childhood Association Rev. John S. Randall DIRECTOR

My dear little Missionaries: The post certainly had something in the line, "Ye cannot rival for one hour October's bright blue weather."

October means the beautiful month of Our Lady's rosary; it means a holiday in honor of the discoverer of our country; it means collecting beautiful red and gold colored leaves, gathering shiny chestnuts and it means all the fun of ghosts and goblins that go with Halloween. All to little missionaries, October means in particular the month of the missions, for on October 19 the whole world celebrates in the celebration of Mission Sunday.

Have you ever stopped to notice, boys and girls, that Mission Sunday always comes during the beautiful harvest time. The idea of harvest is closely linked with our missionaries who are "harvesters for Christ." The harvest makes us think of the merry of God for the fruits of the orchards and the fields are certainly gifts of God in the strictest sense of the term. Things necessary for life are given to us not only adequately but even superabundantly. Millions of hungry men, women and little children, in these four mission countries, look with longing eyes to America as a land of plenty. Let us never give to them the answer of Cain, that we are not our brother's keeper. Let us be merciful, and mercy will be shown to us.

And, boys and girls, this year more so than ever before, let us not forget our missionary priests and sisters who are engaged in the sublime task of gathering souls for heaven. There is a fruitless task as far as the goods of this world are concerned; but of most importance they are saving for the Heart of Christ those souls whom He redeemed at a great price. They need our prayers and our support desperately.

Now, all of you loyal members of the Holy Childhood Association can do your share for Mission Sunday, both in a spiritual and in a material way. I beg of you to pray and pray hard. As a suggestion I would recommend a Novena to be said in your classroom. Make it to Our Lady, Queen of the Missions. You can start it on Saturday, October 11, and you will end it on Mission Sunday, October 19. And then, do you suppose it is asking too much to request that each grade try to ransom one little soul for Christ the King? What would be more consoling to the heart of Christ than to have another little soul brought to His feet.

Let's all join together then, to work and pray for the glorious cause of the Missions, the salvation of souls, the cause for which Our Divine Lord died on Calvary's Cross. Can you count on you not to let us down?

Sincerely yours,
FATHER RANDALL

NEWSWEEK

At St. Andrew's the boys and girls are not sitting back waiting for Mission Sunday to send in their ransoms. Already they are off to the glorious start that will rank them once again with the top notch mission leaders of the country. Listen to the story which the Fifth Grade West has to tell us this

FOR YOUR NEXT CAR: a finance plan that combines the maximum of convenience with minimum cost. See ROCHESTER TRUST before you make any deal. No account necessary. Main Office: Main Street West and Exchange. First Industrial Branch: 30 Clinton Avenue North, Rochester.

IT'S THE FLAVOR THAT'S IN FAVOR!

Old Copper Ale

ROCHESTER BREWING CO., INC. GLENWOOD 270

Edwards

ANNIVERSARY SALE SPECIAL

From Our Beauty Salon

EDWARDS Special Formula

PERMANENT with

Pompadour or Contour Styling

Reg. $5.00
1.00

Really a spectacular price for this type of permanent waving. But better phone early for an appointment. . . . Our appointment booth will be filled in no time at all. (Machine or machineless!)

EDWARDS—Third Floor

Register Enroll, and VOTE Republican

Register Friday and Saturday October 10th and 11th. If You Do Not Register You Cannot VOTE!

This Year, It's "Row A . . . All The Way!"

MONROE COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING Of The New And Larger Flower and Gift Shop

SENECA ARCADE
CORTLAND ST. ENTRANCE

Be Sure To Visit The New Shop
OPENING DAY — WED., OCT. 15

ETHEL M. PERRY

441 CHILI AVE. SENECA ARCADE
MONROE 8447

'FORTY HOURS'

Oct. 10—St. Andrew's, Rochester.
Oct. 12—St. Anne's, St. Charles Barroness, St. Joseph's, Rochester; St. Alphonsus, Auburn; St. Patrick's, Corning; St. Casimir's, Elmira; Churchville; Dundee; Geneva; Montezuma.

CATHOLIC REFUGEE YOUTH PLEGGED FAITH CONTACT

LONDON—Following complaints made by the Archbishop of Liverpool, the Most Rev. R. H. Dowling, concealing the sending of already returned children to places where they have no contact with their faith. Ministry of Health representatives have had talks with Dowling and have demanded that he will be advised of all future plans affecting Catholic children. Dowling says that the sending of such children to places where they have no contact with their faith is a "grave sin."