Ladies Of Charity Hear Fr. Bisky During Institute

"Keep your Blessed Mother as your model; become more and more Mary-like as you go along," so the Rev. Hubert A. Bisky, case consultant of Elmira Catholic Charities challenged about sixty members of the Ladies of Charity at the first session of the Institute for Volunteers which is being held during October and is sponsored by this organization.

Father Bisky said in part, "There are certain fundamental recognized principles which must be followed by any volunteer in social work. In thinking of the volunteer we would suggest that you think in terms of yourself."

Father Bisky defined a volunteer as "a person who offered her services to a social agency without remuneration, to assist in carrying out the work and purpose of the agency." He stated that volunteers are excellent interpreters of the work of professional agencies. He added that volunteers should be ready to accept training and that an agency should not take more volunteers than they can supervise.

Volunteers Needed

He emphasized the need of today for volunteers who are anxious to become partners of the professional worker and that the aim of the visitation made by the volunteer from the Ladies of Charity was to minister to the sick and poor and honor our Divine Lord "If you can only keep in mind the words of our Lord 'As long as you did it to one of these the least of My brethren, you did it to Me' keep a supernatural tone to all of your work. St Vincent de Paul and Blessed Louise de Marillac should be your model Be lady-like like a Lady of Charity and aim to be Mary-like as our Blessed Mother would be. See with her eyes, speak as she would under the same circumstances."

The other speaker was Edgar W. Austin, director of the Elmira Community Chest, whose subject was "Our City and Our People." Mr. Austin gave an outline of the public and private welfare set-up in Elmira. He reminded his listeners that Elmira had a fine group of professional records and that our city was one of the first communities to have a Federation for social service, namely a cooperation of effort in social fields. He traced the history of the Federation Building from the time of the old Day Nursery through the Allied Welfare fund to the present Community Chest. He reminded his listeners that social work needed intelligent lay people on the boards of directors of its agencies, that volunteers could act as contacts in the community and that in explaining the work of the agencies, the volunteer was acting as a valuable interpreter of professional work

The second session of the Institute was held on Tuesday, Oct. 14, in Decker Hall in the Federation Building. Speakers were Miss Hazel L Stewart, R.N. District Supervising Nurse of the State Department of Health, whose subject was "An Investment in Health" and Dr Rena M Bigelow, State Department of Mental Hygiene, who discussed "Personality in the Making."

Members of the Big Sister Committee acted as ushers. Mrs. Geo A. Snyder, President of the Ladies of Charity, presided

Nazareth College in the News

By BONNIE GARDNER

Again the missions are in the foreground of the Nazareth girls' plans. On Mission Sunday, Oct. 19, the College will participate in the Pontifical Mass in a special manner by having it to be celebrated in the Offertory procession. This Mass is to be celebrated by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, at the Pro-Cathedral at 11 o'clock.

On Wednesday, Oct. 15, the girls recognized Sister Theresa Marie's feast day by assisting at a Mass celebrated by the Rev. Leonard Kelly The Undergraduate Association presented the Dean with a spiritual bouquet and a gift, the Missions also remembered her with a gift and the Dean was guest of honor at a dinner given for her by the student boarders.

The Sophomores are impatiently watching the calendar for the 24th of October, the date of the annual Soph Hop. Making very special plans for this affair, La Nette Hockeborn, Honorary Chairman, has appointed Mary Harris general chairman, Marian Dietrich head of the orchestra committee, Bonnie Gardner head of the refreshment committee and Rita Fischer chairman of the decoration committee.

Starting off the year in a fine manner, the Sociology Club announces the date of its annual roller skating party. This is to be held Thursday, November 6, at the Stone Street Arena at which the students—and their friends will frolic. Edna Fitzgerald is chairman of this party and Helen Goschke is Co-Chairman.

2 Rochester Nuns At Charities Meet

Sister Edith, Superior of St. Patrick's Home for Girls, and Sister M. Paulette, Head of the Sociology Department of Nazareth College, left Wednesday evening to attend the National Catholic Charities Convention at Houston, Texas, where Sister Paulette will give a talk on "The Contribution of Sisterhoods to the Field of Social Service." Miss Anna E. King, Dean of the Fordham University School of Social Service, New York City, will talk on the same program on "The Contribution of Lay Women to the Field of Social Service." The meeting at which they are scheduled to speak has been set for Tuesday, October 21, at 1:00 P M.

If the poor lost souls had but one half-hour for repentance given to them, it would depopulate Hell.—St John Vianney.

Third Order Of St. Francis

The October meeting of the Third Order of St Francis will take place at St Patrick's Church at 3 30 o'clock on Sunday Oct 26 Rev Leo C Mooney Spiritual Director will conduct the meeting and receive postulants All those who wish to be received at this meeting are requested to be present at 3 15 and to bring cards bearing their name address, parish and the name by which they wish to be known in religion.

"The Third Order makes no pretensions. It is neither intellectual nor liturgical. Members come from all walks of life; their common bond is a simple desire to live a cheerful, kindly life a little closer to God, to pray a little more regularly and to do what small good lies within their power in the humble Franciscan way.

"Those who in early life had a real vocation which they were prevented from following, find happiness in the Third Order. They can build for themselves a life, serving God while doing the world's work. People who live alone find comfort and companionship in following the Franciscan rule closely, while busy working people may keep only a minimum of formal exercises and yet lead a truly Franciscan life in prayer and example Married couples, both of whom are tertiaries, lead richer and holier lives and bring God's blessing upon themselves. There is no one who is not happier for being a Franciscan.

"Since October is the month of Columbus, it might be well to recall that he was a tertiary and always wore the Franciscan cord. The crews of all his ships heard Mass and received Holy Communion from a Franciscan friar before they sailed. They sang a hymn to the Virgin every night, and the first thing Columbus did when he set his foot upon any shore was to plant a cross and to place the new land under the protection of the Blessed Virgin. Columbus was a truly great Franciscan."

'Miss Courtesy' Named At Mercy

When the final ballot was taken up on Friday, October 10, to decide who would be Miss Courtesy of Our Lady of Mercy High School for 1941 and 1942, Marion Weidenborner, a member of the senior class, "came out with colors flying"

From a group of fifteen candidates, Marion was elected as the most courteous girl in the school by the other girls of the school. Her outstanding courteous qualities and actions made Marion the choice of many a Mercian

The final announcement of the newly-elected "Miss Courtesy" was made by Mary Quinlan, the Chairman of the Courtesy Campaign Committee.
