Holy Redeemer Parish WILL PRESENT COMEDY

By BERNARD H. FLORACK

"The Whole Town's Talking" a three-act comedy by Anita Loos who also wrote "Geostlemen Prefer Blondes" and many other plays and screen plays will be presented Oct. 26 (and 27 (Saturday and Monday) at 8:00 P. M. by the Holy Redeemer Youth Association at the Parish Hall on Clifford Avenue near Hudson Avenue.

During the past summer months the parish hall auditorium was the special object of attention by the club members. The old hasty floorings has been removed and built on a new plan. Walls and woodwork have received a thorough cleaning and paint and varnish and a renewed lighting system has restored the auditorium to its original splendor. As a matter of fact it reminds one of the old days when the famous Holy Redeemer Dramatic Club played to S.R.O. sell-outs. Holy Redeemer Hall has always been one of the best equipped auditoriums in the city, as far as sets lighting and other such properties are concerned.

The cast directed by Wilford H. Scott, includes Evelyn Pallott, Clarence Flass, Joseph Placous, Evelyn Weber, Mary Lou Bopp, Marion Noll, Marie Leinberger, Jeanne Michaud, Wilford Scott, Jack Fedigan, Gertrude Cornelius and Charles Mueller.

Stage manager, Joseph Stocklein, settings, Virginia Minoia, General Committee, Ann Girard, Abe Cook, Don Blang and Bernard H. Florack, moderator, Rev. Walter Carron.

Dancing to the music of Johnny Weinsdorfer and his Band will follow the last curtain each night in the spacious H. R. Y. A. Club Rooms.

"The Whole Town's Talking" is merely one of many outstanding plays to be presented by the H. R. Y. A. in its effort of contributing their share to the success to the forthcoming Diamond Jubilee in 1942 of Holy Redeemer Church.

SODALITY RECEPTION

Some one hundred and fifty young men and women Sodalists gathered last Sunday evening Oct. 19, to hear Father Ehman address them in Holy Redeemer Church on the occasion of their reception into the Sodality. For the young men it was the official establishment of their Sodality, which has been erected under the title of Our Lady of Good Counsel. For the young women it was the continuation of their group which was established by Father Oberholzer in 1871. A lot charter of affiliation with the Prima Primaria in Rome made it necessary to repeat the reception ceremony for the girls.

Father Ehman's message to the Sodalists sounded the keynote of the Christian way of life pointing out that the Sodality reception was

Plan Harvest Party

First dance to be held at Our Lady of Mercy High School in the new gymnasium will take place Oct. 31. The dance is being sponsored by the Sodality and the S. G. A.

Taking place on Halloween, the general setup of the decorations will be such that they will give a "spooky" atmosphere. In charge of decorations is Jean Frank, a junior.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by Maxie McCarthy and his Dukes of Rhythm, Fern Smith, Prefect of the Sodality, and Marie Marecau, President of the S. G. A., are co-chairmen of the affair. Nancy Brown, senior, has charge of tickets.

Community Choir Prepares Concert

The Rochester Community Choir, under the direction of Cornelius M. Maquelin, will hold its Fifth Annual Concert Friday evening, Nov. 14, in the Masonic Auditorium. The Choir as a whole is working very hard to make this concert the best one ever put on by the choir.

Genevieve Trojan, who will appear in the Ice Raveon at Edgerton Park Sports Arena on Nov. 3.
