Knights of St. John
 Games Thursday night, Oct. 16 in the Knights of St. John League, say many teams shifted from one place to another. Holy Family was displaced from first place by Mt. Carmel, the latter taking 1 two games Pellinra with a high score of 233 and Gerstner with a 232 and a high three-game of 599 proved too much for the Ames Streeters, though Barker, bought from last year's SS. Peter and Paul's, came in for a high single of 224 and totaling 550.
 St. George moved up to the first place sack, by defeating St. Eustace all three games. Lindenberg hit the all-high single with a score of 269 and his other games total an all-high three-game of 622. Zwiertein, with a 228, helped his total along to 573, and Bowman's scoring went to 579 as well as Knittel's 564. St. Eustace just eased along with several new recruits and a crippled pilot, landing with a triple tie for last place.
 Pro-Cathedral this year is taking a lot of glory, winning two more games to their string to stay in third place. St. Michael's, the losers, having a man shy. Kraemer's 522 and Kiernan's 511 took high scores for the Pro-Cathedrals, while Frank Merkel's 508 was St. Mike's highest.
 St. Boniface appears to have taken an about-awing this year, taking a steady loss, by again losing a three-game series, and this time to St. Mauritius.
