BISHOP URGES PRAYERS FOR PEOPLE OF RUSSIA

SEATTLE. The Most Rev. Gerald S. Shaghty, S.M., Bishop of Seattle, in an official notice in the Catholic Northwest Progress, diocesan organ, reminds the faithful of his diocese that the prayers at the altar after low Masses are offered up for the people of Russia.

"All are exhorted to advert from time to time to this intention," he added, "and to renew it to the end that the blessing of God may rest upon His Church in that unhappy country. We may include in these and other prayers a remembrance of our distressed and persecuted brethren wherever they may be throughout the world."

The prayers at the foot of the altar were prescribed by Pope Leo XIII in 1884. The innovations to the Sacred Heart were added by Pope Pius X in 1904. Since 1934, by the direction of His Holiness Pope Pius XI, the specific intention of these prayers is the welfare of the Church in Russia.
