'Keep God In National Life' K. of C. Job Says Priest

Present for the second report Sagamore, Friday evening, Oct. 24, meeting of Rochester Knights of Columbus membership campaign will be His Excellency, Bishop Kearney, State Chaplain of the order. The report will be made at Hotel

That the knights have a definite job "to keep God in our national life," was forcefully emphasized by Father Simonetti. He called the organization the "shock troops" in spreading the word of Christ.

"I am convinced not only of the greatness of the organization but of its need," the priest declared. "I am proud to be a Catholic priest, but I am also proud to be a Knight of Columbus."

Reporting to General Chairman George L. McKay were Division Leaders Frank M. Beaucaire, Ernmest J. Schnepf and Theodore J. Houck. A total of 24 new members was reported at the meeting on Tuesday.

Scout Demonstration

Members of Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly, Knights of Columbus, will witness a demonstration tonight, Thursday, of what the Knights of Columbus Boy Scouts are doing for defense. The demonstration will be in charge of Scoutmaster Francis J. Swift. Faithful Navigator Charles F. Raymond is to preside at the meeting.
