Scouting For Catholics

Teams wishing representation in the Catholic Scout News Column are requested to send their news to either Edward Meyerling, 245 North Street, or Fred Heffer, 31 Bayville Street, Girl Scout Units as well as any Catholic Scout Group in the Rochester Diocese are invited to send their news in too.

Walter E. Hsuings, Scoutmaster of the Rochester Council of the Boy Scouts of America, will be toastmaster of this year's annual Scouters' Dinner at the Chamber of Commerce Nov. 18, at 6:15 P. M.

The program committee chairman announced that a list of features have been arranged for the occasion. It includes pageantry, group singing, comedy and a presentation by Chief Scout Wilbur Platt. Other highlights of the program will include the presentation of the Silver Beaver awards, the highest award that can be bestowed on a volunteer scout leader, Eagle citations to scouts who have obtained their Eagle Rank during the last Scouting year, and the awarding of the Veteran Awards for service over a period of years.

Up to this time the dinner has been exclusively for registered Scouters and their friends. This year, however, the dinner committee has extended an invitation to all den mothers of the council. Special tables will be reserved for them.

This year's dinner bids to be the best and largest ever held by the council. Why not make your dinner reservations today at the Scout Office, 616 Mercantile Building.

A demonstration entitled "What the Scouts are doing for defense" was put on last Thursday evening for the members of the Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly of the Knights of Columbus by the Scouts of Troop 141 of the K of C.
