Corporal Conboy Mustered Out

Corporal Frank J. Conboy for mer CATHOLIC COURIER Geneva correspondent, who has been stationed at Fort McClellan, Anniston, Alabama, will be released from service Monday Nov. 23, under the new legislation permitting release of men from the army over twenty-eight years of age.

Corporal Conboy will leave Fort McClellan on Nov. 24 for New Orleans, where he will sail for New York, aboard the S. S. Bellingham of the Pan-Atlantic Line. In Elmira, he plans to visit for a few days his brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Cusick, and will also visit friends in Geneva.

Corporal Conboy plans to resume his duties at the Auburn office of the New York State Electric and Gas Corporation.

Architect Lauded At Dedication.

In his sermon following the dedication Mass at Our Lady of Lourdes Church Sunday, Bishop Kearney paid special tribute to the work of the architect which has given the people of West Elmira one of the most beautiful places of worship in this section.

The firm of Haskell and Considine designed the edifice of Early English Gothic style with the work under the direct supervision of Leo A. Considine, a member of the new parish.

Mr. Considine in his work carried forward a family tradition for his father, the late Joseph H. Considine.

the aisle by their sons Louis and Emil, Jr.

A family dinner was held in the afternoon at the Baron Steuben Hotel which gave all the members of the family an opportunity to visit. Many came from distant parts.

Honor Fr. Gannon
