FR. GROWNEY TO PREACH

Father Growney, well known "Radio Priest" to conduct weekly novena services at St. Ann's, Hornell.

The Rev. Francis A. Growney who is heard weekly on the radio every Monday evening from Buffalo will come to Hornell each Thursday to conduct the novena services in honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help at 7:45 of the evening.

These services have been conducted in St. Ann's during the past two years and bring a large crowd of people every Thursday evening even from some of the outlying districts. There is also held an afternoon service at 3:45 P. M. every Thursday for the children of the parish and for those who cannot find it convenient to attend the evening services.

The devotion has steadily increased ever since it was inaugurated two years ago (last October). It is expected that even a larger crowd will attend from now on in order to hear the "Radio Priest."

The services consist of hymns, prayers in honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help, sermon by Father Growney and closing with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament followed by public veneration of the Miraculous Picture of Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

Father Growney is stationed at Winchester, New York at St. William's Church. During the spring and early fall up until last Sunday he has conducted an invalids outdoor Mass at which tremendous crowds attended. People who are invalids are thus able to attend and sit in their automobiles during the services and thus are able to attend Mass without which outdoor services they would otherwise be unable to attend.

Father Growney is a very able speaker and has met with the greatest of success in conducting novenas in honor of Our Blessed Mother. Interpersing his sermons with anecdotes and stories he holds his audience at the greatest of attention. It has been very fortunate that he was able to be obtained to conduct these services and it is expected that a large crowd will attend.

Thanksgiving Party

Annual Thanksgiving turkey party will be held on Nov. 12, 13 and 14 beginning at 8 o'clock in the parish hall.

Hold Funeral Rites For Mrs. Furlong

The funeral of Mrs. Dora Furlong who died Monday Oct. 27 took place Thursday morning at St. Aloysius Church, Auburn, where Mrs. Furlong had been a member for more than 50 years. At the solemn requiem high Mass that was offered, the Rev. Joseph Haffey was the celebrant, with the Rev. Daniel McCarthy as deacon and the Rev. John B. Crowley as sub-deacon. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, where the committal service was read by Rev. John B. Crowley.

Mrs. Furlong is survived by two sons, Joseph and John Furlong, a daughter, Mrs. Frank Bearsh and several grandchildren, all of Auburn.

When it is our duty to do an act of justice it should be done promptly. To delay would be injustice.

It is being sponsored by the Holy Name Society.

Proceeds from the party will be used to reduce the debt on the convent. Women of the parish have just completed a series of parties with the proceeds being applied to the same purpose. The men in turn, take this opportunity to do their part.

In charge of the affair are Paul Lovette, general chairman and Neil Cotter, master of ceremonies. Assisting on committee are Edward P. James, President of the Holy Name Society, Perry Bradley and Leo Schosger.

The Sodality of "Our Lady" will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, Nov. 13. All Sodality members are invited to be present for this gathering.

Squires Quiz Program

A quiz program was conducted by members of Columbian Squires Circle No. 112 at a gathering held at the Water Street Hall, Oct. 30. Questions were submitted by members of the Circle and prizes were awarded to those having the highest scores.
