

Membership Campaign Opened By Geneva K.C.

Fifty men to become nearly and strongly identified with the parish organization, the Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, Principal of De Sales High School in Geneva, addressed the members of the Knights of Columbus at the initial dinner in Geneva.

The speaker also pointed out that the war record of the Knights as well as their accomplishments in the field of education was greater than that of former records and that they cannot be rested upon that through unanimity of action the Knights must get to the forefront of everything worthwhile.

The Geneva meeting marking the beginning of the membership drive in the city under the leadership of Eugene J. Marshall had also present District Deputy Howard Franklin of Newark, who explained that this year would be a banner year in the reception of new members, he also announced that a third or major degree would be held in Auburn before Dec. 31.

Also a speaker on the program was former Grand Knight of the Council John J. Lee of Albany. Formal installation was presided over by District Deputy Franklin assisted by the District Warden, Victor DeWeaver of Newark. Those installed were: Elvey A. Marshall, Grand Knight; Edward O'Brien, deputy grand knight; John F. Riley, chancellor; Dominic Legnini, warden; M. M. Chacchik, advocate; Richard J. Walsh, treasurer; Frank E. Murphy, secretary; L. J. Didiets, outside guard; Thomas Gallagher, inside guard; and Joseph P. McCafferty, trustee for three years.

The dinner was the first in the winter series under the chairmanship of Edward O'Brien with John McDonough as toastmaster.

I wish to thank you for the copy of the CATHOLIC COURIER.

Your new manner of issuing it in magazine style makes it more convenient to handle... Wishing you much success and thanking you for the magazine.

John A. Cahill,
Waverly, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Klippert:
I think congratulations are in order for the "new" CATHOLIC COURIER. I surely do like it in new form. It is more convenient to read and one may sit on the porch on a windy day and read it without having it blow all over the porch.

I am glad Father Lord's articles still appear for to me that is one of the most interesting features. I also like the question and answer department for we can't get too much information about our faith, especially in these terrible times.

I read the paper from cover to cover for we get facts there that we could never hope to get in the day papers.

Mrs. Edward J. Frawley,
East Rochester, N. Y.

The staff of The Bulletin's executive office congratulates the CATHOLIC COURIER on their new Southern Tier edition. This paper has always been well received by the readers and with the new edition we are sure the

Student Nurses Honor Mary With 'Living Rosary'

The Chapel of St. Joseph's Hospital, Nurses' Home, was the scene of an inspiring tribute to Our Blessed Mother last Thursday evening when the student nurses gathered together in her honor to form the Living Rosary.

The Our Father beads were represented by members of the Senior Class. They wore their uniforms of blue and white stripes completed by the traditional bib and apron.

The Holy Mary beads were represented by the Junior and first year students who wore light blue uniforms.

Each student recited the prayer of which she was representative after the rosary had been started by the chaplain Rev. Phillip McGhan, who officiated in the sanctuary.

After completion of the Living Rosary, the weekly novena prayers in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal were recited.

Services were closed with the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The entire program was sponsored by Our Lady's Committee of the School Sodality, with Miss Alyce Miller in charge of arrangement.

Goodbye and Thanks

I have just been notified that before I go I'd like to thank those responsible for providing the CATHOLIC COURIER, and the immediate response to my leaving the paper in my hands. I work on an outside job and as a result have no library period, and believe me finding the COURIER in my mail every week is like a letter from home. Even though my friends tease me to "shake it up," I still hold it dear to my heart until I finish every article. I'll be in Don Bosco Bulletin, Elmira Reformatory.
