THANKSGIVING FETE

Thanksgiving Festival and Turkey Sale Monday, Nov. 17, in the Church Hall. Admission is free; cider and doughnuts are free to all. Harvest decorations, booths with Thanksgiving viands of all kinds, candy and a bevy of fine young Tom Turkeys to the number of fifty are included. Other turkeys will be on display. Things start at 8:30 and continue till the wee sma' hours. Come and pick out a turkey! Monday at 8:30 Nov. 17. Special Notice: Turkeys will be delivered to your home on Tuesday and Wednesday following the Festival.

Attend the Monday Novena services in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal; they start at 8 P. M., continue for one-half hour. You will like the religious program, the public prayers which you recite with your fellow-attendants, the congregational singing. Join the growing group of those who love to show their devotion to the Mother of God.

School Collection Sunday, Nov. 16, at all the Masses. As a parent, a former pupil, a Catholic, you will want to give an offering each month to the School Collection. Parents give $1.00 each month. Others are invited to follow with a like amount. $546.00 is due the Sisters who teach in our parish school each month; your generous attention to the School Collection on Sunday will enable the parish to pay them promptly.

Tuesday Evening Party starts promptly at 8:30 P. M. Fifty cents sees you through the doors and also pays the tax. A happy two hours of mingled entertainment and sociability, besides the opportunity to join in the playing. For our parishioners and their friends.

The Choir Is Still Asking for New Members would like to enroll some of our young men. A fine opportunity for vocal training. We ask our young men to call on Mr. Vogt, Organist, or Mr. Finein, Director. See them after the last three Masses on Sunday, in the Choir Loft.

COURT SUPPORTS JESUIT FATHERS IN ZONING ISSUE

CHICAGO.—A suburban zoning board's refusal of permission to build a chapel in a residence has been overruled by Judge John C. Lewe, of Chicago. The residence involved is that of the Provincial of the Chicago Province, Society of Jesus.

The Building Commissioner and Zoning Board of Oak Park refused permission for the chapel on the ground that the Provincial's residence would become a building used for religious purposes. Judge Lewe reversed the officials' findings and ruled that with the chapel added the building would still be a one-family dwelling, within the intent of the zoning laws.

TURKEY PARTIES

One of the most popular forms of social entertainment in the parish in the past few years have been the "turkey parties" immediately preceding Thanksgiving. They will be held again this year on next Monday and Tuesday evenings, Nov. 17 and 18, in the School Auditorium at 8:30. This is the original turkey party. Come and bring your friends.

Another old-fashioned party and barn dance will be held in the School Auditorium this Friday evening, Nov. 6. Dan Fagan's Old Time Orchestra with Jim Lewis calling will be on hand from 8:30 to 12. Admission is 35 cents plus tax. Old and young are invited, either to participate or merely to watch. Those who attended the first old-fashioned dance two weeks ago are looking forward to another enjoyable evening.

Members of the Senior Sodality enjoyed a "Breakfast Hike" last Sunday morning. After receiving Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass the Sodalists hiked to Ellison Park where they prepared their own breakfast and spent the morning in outdoor recreation. Snapshots and moving pictures taken during the day will be exhibited at the next Sodality meeting.

The Junior Sodality will hold its monthly meeting for November on next Monday evening. The meeting will begin with devotions in Church in honor of our Blessed Mother, at 8 o'clock.

Because of its proximity to Thanksgiving, the November meeting of the Senior Sodality will be postponed one week and will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 26, instead of Nov. 18.
