The annual parish Turkey Bazaar will be held Monday evening, Nov. 17 in Holy Redeemer Auditorium, with seventy-five turkeys on display. Plans are being made to take care of the largest turnout in years with the advance sale of tickets in heating a wide interest in the event.

Walz, John Walz, Albert Walz, Martin Weber, William Powers, Walter Staudenmeier, Richard Minger, Fred Lutz, Norbert Leinberger, Joseph Stoecklein, Alma Powers, Helen Aman, Dorothy Bartell, Virginia Minoia, Ruth Werner, Helen Weber, Ruth Farrell, Jeanette Farrell, Helen Bopp, Marie Leinberger.

UNIQUE THANKSGIVING DAY DANCE AT H. R. Y. A.

In an effort to while away those lazy hours on Thanksgiving Day after everyone has eaten too much of the gobbler for his own (and the gobbler's) good, the officers of the Holy Redeemer Youth Association have come up with plans for a dance that will begin at five o'clock on Thanksgiving Day afternoon, Nov. 20, and continue till eight in the evening.

Prefects Don Aman and Evelyn Pallott and their committees feel that will settle the turkey (and) host and leave the evening free for a movie or the Tech High Basketball game—that is, if the crowd will break away from the enchanting rhythms of Johnny Wernsdorfer and his boys who will supply the drum sticks and fixings on this part of the day's menu. The large crowds who heard him last month at the H. R. Y. A. play, "The Whole Town's Talking" are already smacking their lips in anticipation.

Co-chairmen of this unique Turkey Trot, Wilford Scott and Mary Louise Bopp, are supervising arrangements, and announce that the dance floor and club rooms will be at their best in special decorations for the day. The well-known H. R. Y. A. Milk Shakes will make their first appearance of the season at the club's milk bar. The popularity of the milk bar at the club's feature events last season frequently resulted in an unscheduled jam session. The new equipment just purchased will assure rapid service to all.

Cornell Newman Club Active

This year the Cornell Newman Club began activities with the largest paid up membership in its history.

The Rev. Donald M. Cleary's classes in Christian Doctrine on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons are again popular, and this year, for the first time, the University has assigned him a regular classroom, making it possible for an increased attendance.

Each Sunday is designated to one of the classes as a group Communion day and this year, for the first time, Mass is being celebrated on the campus daily.

An old-fashioned Halloween party was held by the club on Oct.

31 under the chairmanship of Jack Love and Dave Lannigan.

The club held its Initiation Ceremony on Nov. 9 for the first time in the history of this chapter. Miss Loraine Kuhn was in charge and over two hundred new members were initiated.

The club is sponsoring an informal dance, the "Green Glide," on Nov. 21, in honor of the visiting Dartmouth football team. The dance is open to the public and is under the Chairmanship of Dorothy Dunne '42.
