The Week At— ROCHESTER NIAGARA U

MAKE 'WHO'S WHO'

Appointment of five students to represent Niagara University College of Business Administration of Rochester in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" was made this week according to the Rev. Dr. William J. Mahoney, C.M. dean.

Selection was based upon scholarship, character, personality and leadership that gives promise of their successful future in the business world as they have earned a distinguished past in college. The appointment was made by an impartial committee headed by the Rev. Francis M. Meade, C.M., vice-president of Niagara.

Father Mahoney said that the selection was particularly difficult this year due to the high number who were considered eligible. The honors went to the following:

- Robert A. Brayer, 56 Reilly St., Edwin G. Doolley, 60 Reilly St., Alvin A. Green, 435 Flint St., Eugene U. Keith, 801 Norton St., J. Walker Smith, Fairport.

Publication of a brief biography of these honored students will be made in the 1941-42 issue of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Selection of students in "Who's Who" numbers students from over six hundred colleges.

OBSCENE BOOK DRIVE WINS HOLY NAME GROUP'S PRAISE

RACINE, Wis. — Milwaukee officials were praised for the efforts to suppress obscene literature, in a resolution adopted when 1,000 men from parishes throughout the Archdiocese gathered here for the annual convention of the Milwaukee Archdiocesan Uplion of Holy Name Societies.

Dedicating themselves and their work to Christ the King, the members pledged cooperation with all public agencies seeking to eliminate objectionable literature and specifically condemned the "brazen display, easy accessibility and indiscriminate sale of literature which presents great evils, and temptations to youth and even adults."

DEDICATION SET

Belleville, Ill. — The recently-completed "Mazard Hall" combination auditorium-gymnasium on the campus of St. Henry's College and Diocesan Seminary here, will be dedicated Sunday, Nov. 18. On the program will be the Most Rev. Henry Althoff, Bishop of Belleville; the Very Rev. Dr. Martin O'Malley, C.M., Rector of Kenrick Seminary, St. Louis, and the Very Rev. Alphonse Simon, Provincial of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, who conduct the college and seminary.

All flesh shall perish together, and man shall return into ashes. — Job XXXIV, 15.

St. John (Spencerport): William Falls, St. Salome: Owen Roth, Ragan Travis, St. Theodore: John Baum, Robert Baum, Robert Dargatzis, Bernard Lynch, Frank Stadler and Benedict Tolany.

Hold Miss Doyle Rites At Corning

Miss Anna F. Doyle, of 148 W. Third St., Corning, N. Y., died Sunday after a short illness.

She is the sister of Sister M. Isadore who is teaching at Our Lady of Mercy High School, Rochester.

Other survivors are three brothers, James of Buffalo, William of Washington, Pa., and Peter of Corning, N. Y., a niece, Miss Virginia Weaver of Corning.

The Solemn Funeral Mass was held Wednesday morning with the Rev. John A. Smith, celebrant, Rev. Lawrence W. Gannon, Deacon and Rev. Joseph E. Guilfoil, Subdeacon.

Present in the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Griffin V.F., Rev. John C. Newcomb, Rev. John Albert and other priests from Elmira.

Miss Doyle was one of Corning's outstanding and best known women. She devoted much of her time to the welfare work in St. Mary's parish where she was a devout member. She was secretary of the League of the Sacred Heart and active in all Catholic activities in Corning.

Miss Doyle was the daughter of the late Edward and Margaret Kingsella Doyle and spent her entire life in Corning. She attended St. Mary's Parish School and St. Elizabeth's Academy, Alleghany.

One of her brothers, James Doyle, a member of the staff of the Buffalo Courier-Express, is one of the outstanding political writers in the state. He has offices in Buffalo, Washington, and Albany.
