

Nazareth College in the News

By BONNIE GARDNER

It is time for the traditional Senior Freshmen Tea and that means it is also time for the Freshmen to get out their Sunday dresses for this very important affair. The various committees for this event scheduled for the latter part of this month have been selected as follows:

Honorary Chairman, Betty Riley, General Chairman, Patricia Kaulo, Chairman of Arrangements is Jane Skelington and on her committee are Helen Harding, Margaret Cullane, Carl Wegman, Alba Probst, Rita Brennan, Connie DiPasquale, Jane Butcher, Josephine Golin, Shirley Lane, Janet Scanlon, Dot Walther and Irene Wegman.

Jean Dunigan is head of the Reception Committee and assisting her are Ellen Foley, Kathleen Lyons, Harriet Walton, Florence Rogan, Jane Armbruster, Marie K. Brennan, Janet Gilroy, Betty Hendrick, Nancy McAffery, Catherine McShane, Betty Quetschenbach and Frances Reider.

The Invitations Committee is headed by Catherine Roe and she is aided by Louise Welch, Lucy Argenti, Evelyn Costabile, Grace Probst, Joan Dawes. Chairman of Publicity is Kaye LaBlonde and on this committee are Bernadine Barr, Marie Johnston, Rita Fovero and Rosemary Miller.

Helen McCormick is chairman of the Entertainment Committee and is assisted by Peggy Moore, Helen Collins, Helen Wencick, Mildred Curtis, Madeline Murphy, Pat Quinn, Helen Bump, Mary Frances Mardon and Mona Stott.

After putting forth their best efforts the Dramatic Club announces Dec. 1 as the night for its presentation of "The Barretts" by Maxine Gordon. This play has been capably directed by Miss Rita Sault, head of the Dramatic Department of the College. The cast includes Betty Hendricks, Gerry Topka, Margaret Cullane, Marilyn Moore, Rosemary Turner, Mildred Curtis, Allan Williams, John Regan, Leo Beloch, George Staud, John Rapp, Edgar Maloney.

Dec. 6 is another important date for the girls of Nazareth when they will play host to delegates from Colleges of all New York State at the Catholic School Press Conference. The names of many outstanding speakers are on the program for that day. Listed among these are the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester; Rev. Gerald Ellard, S.J., Rev. Paul Hanley, Curley, Rev. Benedict Finmann, Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Mr. J. L. O'Sullivan, Miss Ade Bethune and Miss Blanche Thompson. The Rev. Leonard A. Kelly is to be the presiding officer and Patricia Barry is to be student leader of the Discussions. After the Conference there is to be a buffet supper and dancing at the new college and here the evening will be fittingly closed with Benediction.

Thanksgiving Play Given At Mercy

To fill the halls of Our Lady of Mercy High School with a truly Thanksgiving spirit, members of the Freshman and Sophomore

Mercy High P.T.A. Chooses Board

The first regular meeting of the Parent Teachers Association of Our Lady of Mercy High School was held on November 18 from 9:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. in the auditorium.

At the business part of the meeting an advisory board was chosen for nominations and for drawing up a constitution. Miss Blanche Thompson, the head of the English department at Benjamin Franklin and also a well-known author, spoke to those present.

Upon completion of the business meeting, a tea was held.

'HE DID IT UNTO ME'

... Whosoever pity shares His bread with sorrow, want, or sin, And loveth the beggar's feast prepares

The uninvited Guest comes in, Unheard, because our ears are dull Unseen, because our eyes are dim, He walks our earth, the Wonderful And all good deeds are done to Him.

—J. J. Whittier

A Thanksgiving Pop-Call

Lord this is Thanksgiving Day And I've so much to do The folks are coming home You know

No I must soon leave You, I just came in to tell You, I'll be thinking of You Lord, When we are happily gathered Around our festive board

I'm going to use my finest cloth The one that's made of lace And each piece of my best china Will have an honored place

I'll use that fragile crystal The children gave to me Oh, Lord, 'twill be a lovely sight For my dear folks to see

Now if you're very lonely, Lord, While we're so happy here, That You will come and join us Is my earnest, humble prayer. For if Your sacred presence To our holiday, you'll lend I know that our Thanksgiving Day Will have a happy end

Movie Rating

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — "Sun Valley Serenade" received a 99 rating in classification for adults and children in a latest movie poll conducted among readers by "The Queen" Work national Society monthly published here. This is just one point below the highest rating possible in the classification for adults and children. "Life Begins for Andy Hardy" was first with 98.

classes brought to life a typical modern Thanksgiving scene in a play "Meet the Americans" at the regular meeting of the Student Government Association.

An opposite scene presented the colonial family and their celebration of the holiday, with Helen Uebel as the colonial housewife.

Others included in the cast were sophomores, Shirley Brigham, Dorothy Tevels, Geraldine Dentinger, Josephine Bonafide, Connie Curran, and Betty Gleason. Among the freshmen in the play were Mary Kathryn Falk, Betty Cavanaugh, Marilyn McCaghy and Christine Goffredo.

Furnishing the background for the play was a choir of sophomores singing appropriate songs for the occasion.

Writes Foreword To Group's History

ST. LOUIS. — A letter from the Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch, Archbishop of Chicago and Episcopal Protector of the National Catholic Women's Union, forms a foreword to a history of the Union just published here in commemoration of its twenty-fifth anniversary.

The N. C. W. U. Archbishop Stritch says, "is above all a group of good, devoted Catholic mothers who envision the practical problems of the Catholic family in our times. They understand in a re-
