Alfred Noyes Hits Modern 'Realism' In Aquinas Talk

"Literature in Retreat from Reality" - this was the challenging expose brought forth in the lecture of Alfred Noyes...

The famous poet, novelist, essayist, biographer and critic said that he chose this title for his lecture to prove how the literary writers and artists of today are breaking off from the great heritage of the past...

The so-called realism of our day is a superficial one dealing only with external phenomena. But the chief function of art and literature should be the use of material things insofar as they suggest the reality behind the phenomenal world...

Pseudo-realism is outside the realm of the perennial philosophy of Christendom. As it is found in the literature of today first things are placed last and everything is considered in the light of the flux in the world...

In the past we have had revolutions in the fields of literature and art which have resulted in some worthwhile invention. The distinguished English poet said today no one ventures to declare publicly whether the work in the field of literature and art is being done either by mentally afflicted people or by those intellectually gifted.

Modern pseudo-realism may be said to be a result of the scientific thought of the nineteenth century. A great deal of the trouble would have been averted...

Diocesans Urged To Mark 'Nutrition Fortnight'

Cooperation of all diocesans in "Nutrition Fortnight" commencing with Thanksgiving Day is asked by His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester.

Contributions Made At Religious Services Not Subject To Tax

WASHINGTON. A communication from Guy T. Helvering, Commissioner of Internal Revenue to all collectors of Internal Revenue advises that in the Code of Federal Regulations...

The communication called attention to this stipulation in an amendment to a section of the Code of Federal Regulations pertaining to the taxes on admissions dues and initiation fees.

The Revenue Act of 1941 recently enacted by Congress terminated the exemption on admission taxes heretofore granted to benefits given for religious, charitable and educational organizations.

God searches the reins and the heart. If He sees in your virtue fit for a martyr's death He will reward you according to your virtue.

In a letter received from Martin F. Loew, M.D. member State Nutrition Committee to His Excellency stress is placed upon calling attention of women to classes in nutrition being organized by local defense councils.

At the request of the Conference Board of Women's Educational Organizations the New York State Nutrition Committee is arranging for a "Nutrition Fortnight" commencing with Thanksgiving.

Governor Lehman has been asked by the Committee to issue a proclamation urging on the ceremonies and observances of a public nature.

I am writing to you for your assistance in making the Nutrition Fortnight a real opportunity for focusing the attention of the public on the need for adequate nutrition for all our people as an important factor in our defense efforts.

After citing the need for women to join classes in nutrition the letter concludes:

I should be grateful to you if you would bring to the attention of all churches in your jurisdiction the need for such publicity at this time.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.
