

CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH

BISHOP BLESSES SHRINE

Dedication of Shrine to Blessed Mother at Corpus Christi, Bishop Kearney to officiate Sunday, Nov. 30, 8:00 P. M.

Through the generosity of the many clients of the Blessed Mother a beautiful new shrine will be dedicated to her under her title of "Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception" on Sunday, Nov. 30, at 8:00 P. M. The shrine consists of an altar, set under a baldachin and supporting the statue of the Blessed Mother. The statue is the gift of Mr. Thomas P. Holahan, in memory of his mother. Assisting the Bishop will be the clergy of the parish and the Rev. Alban Calagee, C.P., who is opening the Annual Fall Retreat for Men and Women in the form of a Novena to Our Lady, the Novena will continue till the Feast of the Immaculate Conception inclusive.

The new shrine will be the scene of the devotions held every Monday at 8:00 P. M. in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. Catholic University Collection at all the Masses on the First Sunday of Advent. All are urged to be-

Immaculate Conception

VICTORY FAIR SUCCESS

By MARGERY BERNARD
The recent "Victory Fair" held in Immaculate Conception School Auditorium was truly a victorious event in the annals of the parish. Every Society in the Church and each individual parishioner gave his whole hearted support to make this affair the outstanding success it was.

Rev. Joseph S. Cameron pastor expressed his deep gratitude to the Rev. Donald Murphy, secretary, chairman, and Elmer LeVoth, general chairman. The net receipts of the Victory Fair totaled over $4,000.00, and for this great achievement the committees for the Fair and the various societies of the Church and all who helped in any way have the deep and lasting appreciation of the priests of the parish and those in charge of the Fair.

St. John the Evangelist's

FALL PARTY SET

A gala Fall Party, under the auspices of the Holy Name Society will be held in St. John the Evangelist's Hall, Humboldt St., on Friday evening, Nov. 28, beginning at 8:30 P. M.

Modern and old-fashioned dances are on the program with Bob Hemmings and his orchestra furnishing the music. Cards will be available for those who would like to play. Two floor shows with professional talent have been arranged by the committee in charge.

President Fred G. Benson has appointed Clarence J. Brauch as general chairman and these committee heads: Albert J. Biedenbach, tickets, and Frank J. Keehley, entertainment.

Mr. Keehley announces that Charles John Sullivan, Rochester's leading lyric tenor, will sing several numbers.

The following acts comprise the rest of the entertainment: the Bohn Trio, Gymnastic Artists, Smiling Sammy Jenkins, Tap Dancer, Bill Crowley, Exponent of the Vibraphone, and the Bellamy Sisters in several dance numbers.

Sodality Party

Under general chairmanship of Arline Mostyn, head of the Social Life Committee, St. John's Sodality will hold a roller skating party, tomorrow evening, November 28, in the school hall.

Assisting Miss Mostyn are Regina Rago, Ann Gerslner, and Pat Saunders, who are in charge of tickets and publicity. Helen Crough is chairman of refreshments, with Jean Brauch and Shirley Vogt assisting. Arrangements will be handled by Virginia Appleby, Edna Hasselwander, Enez Benedict, and Kathleen Flaherty.

This committee has planned an evening of fun and entertainment which every Sodalist can enjoy. Ample means and modern equipment have been provided for all the skaters. Music, charged to Catherine Clark, will add to the sparkle of the party.

It is appointed unto men once to die, and after this the judgment.

All the workers on the Victory Fair were entertained at a supper meeting on Tuesday evening. An appeal was made to Francis McDonnell for his outstanding work on the ticket committee. In charge of the supper were Mrs. Frank Stasman, Mrs. Frederick Bailey and Mrs. R. J. Steeb.

Plans are rapidly moving forward and preparations are being made under the capable direction of Father Charles Boyle for the Immaculate Men's Night. Every man in the parish is most cordially invited to attend this get-together on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2. To date, it is planned that local parish talent will entertain the men a portion of the evening and a football game will be shown, while further plans are being developed for the balance of the evening. Refreshments will be served later in the evening and it is hoped that not only every member of the Holy Name Society will be present but also every man of the parish will attend. There will be no charge for admission.

A solemn Novena in honor of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception will begin on next Sunday. The Rev. James J. Murphy, C.M., will conduct the Novena.

The Cub Pack of Troop 13 held their monthly pack meeting on Monday evening. James G. Rogers, chairman of the Cub Pack, was in charge. A review of model airplanes made by the cubs was held.

Tony Mulligan and his band continue to draw huge crowds each Friday evening at the Immaculate's Super Swing Sessions. He will continue to play for the next two weeks until Dec. 6.

At the annual Scouters' dinner held at the Chamber of Commerce, the Scouts of Troop 13 of this Church were especially honored by having John Swift receive the coveted Eagle Award.

Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights of St. John held its Installation Dinner Monday evening. Mrs. Margaret Kaib was in charge of the installation and Mrs. Teresa Ganster, Supreme President, was guest of honor.

New officers are: the Rev. Donald Murphy, chaplain; Frances Roundtree, president; Maude Summers, second vice-president; Ruth Kane, recording secretary; Edna McGrath, financial secretary; Gertrude Bernard, treasurer; Jean Scott, message; Mildred Steeb, sentinel; Florence Heberger, guard. The regular business meeting of the Rosary Guild will be held on Monday, Dec. 1 preceded by a turkey supper at 6:30 p. m. in the school hall. Each member is requested to bring a small dish of prepared food for the supper.

Santa Claus will visit during the evening and each member is expected to bring a 10 cent gift for Santa's bag. Mrs. Ernest Wilson has been appointed chairman of the party. A cordial invitation is extended to all women of the parish to attend.

The Rosary Guild members on Dec. 7 will receive regular monthly Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock Mass.
