*Why Gamble
without a Gain?*

• Sometimes people reason that because of the high ethical standards we maintain, our prices must be away out of line. On the contrary, it costs no more, and sometimes less, to have a prescription compounded here. That's because prescriptions are our primary business. Large volume means low overhead. Quick turnover, assures fresh, potent drugs in every instance. And, finally, it is our policy to fill prescriptions exactly as the Doctor directs. Don't gamble. Bring us your prescriptions.

Pledges Reach $1467

The grand total of $1467.16 has been pledged for the redecoration of the church. Of this, $1,052.65 in cash has been turned in with the pledges. This wonderful cooperation will permit not only the decoration work but also the installation of kneelers. Work on the school will begin after Christmas.

On Sunday, Nov. 30, a Solemn High Mass will be celebrated for the intention of those who have contributed to the redecoration project. This Mass will also open the Forty Hours devotion. A procession of the school children will be held after the Mass. Services will also be held each evening.

Among those who have made special contributions are Mr. Edward Hanna, for the redecoration of the main altar; Daughters of Mary for the Blessed Virgin Altar; Novena Devotees for the St. Anthony altar; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeSocio for the St. Lucy Statue; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Cirulli for the St. Teresa statue; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel LeMark for the St. Ann altar; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Spallone for the Sacred Heart altar; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeRenzo for the St. Joseph altar; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mogres, Sr. for the Mt. Carmel altar; the Emanuel family for the Della Libera; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cicora for the crucifix, the Chalk families for the Stations of the Cross; Mary Phionona LeMark for the Baptismal Font; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Liberatore for the Votive Standard.

The triduum in honor of Our Lady will open on Friday, Dec. 5. Rev. Robert G.H. O.M.L. of the Collegiate Institute, Buffalo will conduct the services. He will be remembered for his splendid talk on Mother's Day last year.

Services will be held each evening at 7:30 P. M. and consist of Rosary, sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. All the young ladies of the parish are invited to participate in the triduum and receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday, Dec. 7.

Reception of new members and installation of officers will be held on Sunday evening, Dec. 7. This will be climaxed by a procession of school children in the form of a living rosary and the crowing of the Blessed Virgin. After the services members will be feted in the parish hall with a turkey dinner.

In charge of the arrangements are Mary Pirozolo and Frances Della Rocca, co-chairmen, Josephine Trengo, Rose Spallone, Lena Carosio, Frances Fusare and the officers.

Five girls have expressed their desire to join the Sodality thus far, Josephine Sarcone, Benedette DePrimo, Rose Marino, Lorena Carosio and Margaret DeLauro.

St. Charles Borromeo

FLAGS NOW INSTALLED

Two flags have just been installed in St. Charles Borromeo Church. One is the American flag and one is the Papal flag. They are of fine quality material and are well made.

The Altar Society held an election last week and a picture of the officers is in this week's CATHOLIC COURIER.
