Auburn Weddings

Beer - Surber
A pretty Thanksgiving Day wedding was solemnized Nov. 20 in Holy Family Church, when Miss Marjorie Surber, daughter of Chester Surber of Union Street, became the bride of James F. Beer, son of Charles Beer of Pimm Avenue. The Very Rev. Dean John A. Conway, pastor, officiated.

Miss Barbara Weatlake was bridesmaid and Charles Beer, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

A wedding breakfast was served at The Pioneer followed by a reception at 5 Pimm Avenue.

The bride was guest of honor at a number of pre-nuptial showers, given by friends and relatives. A dinner was given in her honor at Tibbert's in Syracuse by the girls of the inspection department of the Auburn Spark Plug Company.

Bishop's Monument

OTTAWA.—On the grounds at one side of Notre Dame Basilica here, is a monument to Bishop Guignes, first Bishop of Ottawa, from 1844 to 1874. It has now been decided to erect a monument on the other side to Ottawa's second Bishop and first Archbishop, the Most Rev. Joseph Thomas Duhaime, who was Bishop of Ottawa from 1874 to 1886, when he became Archbishop continuing in office until 1909.

THAT HOLY MORN

Nineteen hundred years ago,
When the ground was covered
with ice and snow,
In a manger far away,
A little Holy Child lay.

'Twas Christmas night and all was calm.

The Angels sang a holy psalm.
It was the day of Jesus' birth,
The King of Kings came down to earth.

In a place quite near this manger,
A man was filled with rage and anger.
He learned that Christ the King
was born
On this Holy, Holy morn.

He was a king, afraid that Christ would be greater than he.
He said, "Why this could never be.

That Babe will never live to see.
The day when he'll be greater than me."

But the Babe escaped from this jealous King.

For Him that would never be the right thing.

It was that Christmas night many years ago

When the ground was covered
with ice and snow

A cold freezing night in the month of December

A night that everyone will always remember.
