ST. ANTHONY'S PARISH

TRIDUUM CLOSSES SUNDAY

The triduum sponsored by the Young Ladies Sodality on Friday, Saturday and Sunday will have solemn closing this Sunday evening. Rev. Robert Gill O.M.I. is conducting the service.

The living rosary will be presented with sixty-five children taking part. Reception of new members and installation of new officers according to the Sodality ritual will be conducted.

Rose DeStoep was elected for the third term. Other officers will be Marian D'Nunzio, Yolanda Della Rocca, Mary Lucy and Mary Spetzant.

All members of the Sodality will receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday morning. A banquet will be held in the parish hall on Sunday evening. It will be prepared and served by members of the Holy Name Society.

Sacred Heart members will hold a meeting on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Adolph Cutillo will preside.

Daughters of Mary will meet on Thursday Dec. 12. Candidates for offices will be nominated and election conducted.

The "Antonian" official paper of the parish is in need of a little assistance. So far it has been put out each week by Father Gill for over two years. No driver has ever been conducted and no assistance has ever been asked. Now however, a little help is needed. The Young Ladies Sodality has been the first organization to answer the plea for aid and has donated $100 to the cause. If each society could help a little, the future of the Antonian would be assured.

The Masses for the holiday, Dec. 8 will be at 7:8 and 9 o'clock.

The committee for the parish party on Dec. 10 will be Mrs. Rose DeStoep, Mrs. Angeline Notarangelo, Mrs. Catherine Salvatore, Mrs. Antoinette Mucci, Mrs. Carrie Costanzo, Mrs. Catherine Magno, Mrs. Frances Bonignone, Mrs. Monica Cutillo, Mrs. Celeste Leone.

Catholic Speakers Bureau

Given the approval of His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester and State Chaplain, the Catholic Speakers' Bureau sponsored by Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, announces speakers and topics and that it ready to accept engagements.

"Living the Christian Life" is the theme of the addresses. In his statement, Bishop Kearney says:

"The Catholic Speakers' Bureau organized by the Rochester Council of the Knights of Columbus is a fine piece of Catholic Action. I sincerely trust that the service of this Bureau will be welcomed by our parish groups."

James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester.

Manifesting his interest in this work the Bishop was host to the speakers at a dinner in Hotel Sagamore on Tuesday night. His encouragement and that of the Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Geffel, the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, Moderator of the Bureau and the Rev. John V. Loughlin, Council Chaplain was expressed. Grand Knight Joseph P. Flynn joined in the commendation.

Alhambra To Honor Beaucaire

In recognition of his outstanding service to the Order of the Alhambra, Musa Caravan, will give a testimonial dinner in honor of Frank M. Beaucaire, retiring, this year as Grand Commander.

The testimonial will be held at Hotel Sagamore on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8. National officers of the Alhambra, business associates and friends of Mr. Beaucaire in other men's organizations will attend.

A review of his two terms as Grand Commander will be given by Mr. Beaucaire's successor, Grand Commander Norman A. O'Brien.

The guest of honor has held several offices in the Alhambra, has been delegate to national conventions and in the recent Knights of Columbus membership campaign was a division leader. He is also a member of Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly.

Toastmaster for the dinner program will be Daniel F. Fitzgerald, a past grand commander. Music will be in charge of Paul A. Pedmore, financial secretary of the K. of C.

Among the national officers expected is Vice Supreme Commander, George J. Klopfer of Buffalo. Arrangements for the testimonial are being directed by Otto A. Shultz, chairman and also a past commander. Reservations are being made with Chairman Shultz and his committee comprising Grand Commander, Emmet J. O'Neil, Anthony F. Furstoss and Emmett J. Schnepp. They can also be made by calling the K. of C. rooms, Main 1492.
