

ST. ANN'S, Hornell

By Dolores Hanrahan

High School Triduum

A triduum for Junior and Senior High School students will be conducted this week at St. Ann's Church beginning Thursday afternoon Dec. 4, at 3:15 o'clock. The Rev. William Devereaux of Nunda will be the speaker at the services. In addition to the opening on Thursday afternoon, an evening service will be conducted Friday at 7:30 o'clock. The triduum will close Sunday evening Dec. 7, at 7:30 o'clock, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Father Devereaux will speak on subjects of particular interest of students of Junior and Senior High School ages. It is expected that the triduum will be largely attended.

Holy Name Society

Plans for having guest speakers at future meetings were discussed at the regular meeting of the Holy Name Society which was held recently at the Green Room of the Federation Building. The meeting was conducted by the Rev. John P. O'Malley moderator.

Members of the society also discussed methods of increasing attendance for recitation of the Rosary at the home of deceased members.

Honored By School

Patrick Dressler and Francis O'Connor, seniors at Hornell High School, were two of the three students selected by Principal Edward Cooke to compete for a Harvard University scholarship. Both boys are graduates of St. Ann's School, class of 1938.

Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dressler of Allen Street. During his entire school career he has been consistently on the first honor roll, having all marks above ninety per cent.

Francis, the son of Mrs. M. H. O'Connor of 36 Pine Street, also has received scholastic honors both in St. Ann's School and Hornell High School.

Adoration Men's Vigil

St. Ann's Church was the scene of an impressive sight last Saturday night and Sunday morning when members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society kept their regular monthly vigil before the Blessed Sacrament in the small chapel. The vigil began at 10 o'clock Saturday evening and closed at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Members of the society changed attendance hourly for devotions to the Blessed Sacrament.

The small chapel has been decorated regularly this year by flowers purchased by the society. Officers of the Nocturnal Adoration Society are as follows: The Rev. Edward Dempsey, moderator; C. J. Bishop, president; Thomas F. Maloney, vice-president and P. S. McNamara, secretary and treasurer.

O'Brien-O'Connor

Miss Theresa O'Connor and Stephen O'Brien, both of Hornell, were married November 29 at 8 o'clock at St. Ann's Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Thomas Touhey of Buffalo. John O'Brien of Hornell, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Breakfast was served to members of the immediate families at the home of Mrs. Gerald O'Connor. A reception was held later with 50 guests present.

Mrs. O'Brien is a graduate of Hornell High School and of St. James' Mercy Hospital nursing school. Mr. O'Brien was graduated from the Federal Commercial School, and is now an employee of the Erie Shops. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will make their home in Hornell.
