Dedicates Lourdes Grotto in Texas

SAN ANTONIO. The Most Rev. Robert E. Lucey, Archbishop of San Antonio, officiated at the dedication today of the grotto-sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes at De Mazenod Scholasticate of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate here.

The grotto was made possible through the efforts of the League of Mary Immaculate, which assists the Oblate missionaries in their labors in the Southwest.

Archbishop Lucey presided at the Mass in the grotto celebrated by the Very Rev. Walter Arnold, O. M. I., Provincial of the Texas Province. The Rev. Cullen F. Deckert, O. M. I., Director of the League of Mary Immaculate, who has given 11 of his time for three years to the realization of this project, was deacon and the Rev. Lawrence J. Seidel, O. M. I., Superior of the Oblate Minor Seminary here, sub-deacon. Archbishop Lucey preached the sermon.

Following the Mass, His Excellency blessed the fountain for the sick on the left of the grotto. The first procession to the shrine was held this evening, when Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was celebrated.

The League of Mary Immaculate will have offices in the rear of the grotto and will sponsor pilgrimages.

UGANDA MARTYRS' PARISH PLANS NEW CHURCH EDIFICE

OKMULGEE, Okla. Plans have been completed for the erection of a new church to replace the present temporary structure of the Church of the Uganda Martyrs here. The church, serving the colored population of Okmulgee, is directed by the Rev. William C. Strahan, C.S. Sp., pastor, and the Rev. Maxim J. Therou, C.S. Sp.

The parish, said by the Holy Ghost Fathers to be the first Catholic colored parish placed under the patronage of the Uganda Martyrs, was established on October 7, 1925, by the Most Rev. Francis G. Kelley, Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa, with the Rev. Urban de Hasque as pastor. Father de Hasque, while on a visit to Rome two years earlier, received a relic of St. Carol Luanga, one of the Uganda Martyrs. It was this that motivated Father de Hasque's decision to place the new parish, which he was asked by Bishop Kelley, to form, under the patronage of the Uganda Martyrs.

I will wander through the seasons of men like the great holidays of faith. I will rise like a Christmas constellation over the hours of mankind.

They shall hail me: Peace, Peace on Earth!

They shall sing me as they sing Hallelujah!

They shall bless me as the light on Easter morning.

They shall rejoice in me as the Holy Year of the Lord.

The Holy Year

BICYCLE ACCIDENT FATAL TO MISSIONER IN INDIA

MADRAS, India. A fall while bicycling in the jungles in the country of the Bhils proved fatal to Father Charles, O.F.M. Cap, 71, who had been laboring among the natives for 40 years. He had made a profound study of the language of the Bhils, among whom he had made many conversions. Virtually every Catholic mission center among the Bhils was established by Father Charles.

PUBLIC QUARTERLY

St. Benedict, Ore. — The first issue of The Rock, a national intercollegiate quarterly for Catholic colleges, has just been published at Mount Angel College here. With the exception of the leading article, reserved for a guest writer, all articles, stories and verse in the periodical are by undergraduate students at Catholic colleges.
