STUDENTS TRIDUUM

By DOLORES HANRAHAN

HORNELL. A very successful triduum for Junior and Senior High School students was brought to a close on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception with the reception of Holy Communion by all the students of St. Ann's Parish.

The Rev. William Devereaux of Nunda was the speaker at the three services preceding the Feast Day. His talks were based on the practical problems confronting youth today. All the services were well attended by more than 500 students.

At the closing service, Sunday evening, the young congregation renewed their baptismal vows pledged fidelity to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and promised obedience to the Ten Commandments.

During Benedictions of the Blessed Sacrament, five priests were in the sacristy. At the close of the service the Rev. Andrew T. Tyssett spoke briefly, commending the students for their attendance at the triduum and expressing the gratitude of the parish to Father Devereaux.

Joseph Dixon Rites

Funeral services were held Dec. 11 at St. Ann's Church for Joseph Dixon of Hornell, who died last Monday at St. James Mercy Hospital.

Survivors are his wife and three daughters, Joanne, Mary Ellen and Loretta, all at home; his father, John Dixon, of Almond; two brothers, John Dixon, Jr., and Thomas Dixon, of Buffalo, and four sisters, Misses Gertrude and Florence Dixon, Mrs. Peter Bey and Mrs. David Bordeaux of Almond.

Heads 4th Degree

James F. Curran was installed as Faithful Navigator at a dinner of Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus which was held at the club rooms on Broadway Tuesday evening, Dec. 9. Cyril J. Tait of Rochester, Master of the Fourth Degree of the fifth district, conducted the installation.

Other officers installed are as follows: Richard J. Moore, Faithful Captain; Harold A. Hogue, Comptroller; John B. Hogan, Faithful Admiral; John Kenney, Faithful Pilot; Francis J. Kenney, Inside Sentinel; Joseph Galbo, Outside Sentinel. The Rev. Ignatius X. Cameron, pastor of St. Ignace Loyola Church, was installed as chaplain.

About forty Fourth Degree Knights and their wives were guests at the dinner. George Seemith, who is very active in Fourth Degree affairs, presided as toastmaster. A musical program was presented during the evening.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the dinner included James Curran, Francis J. Kelly and Harold Hogue.

ORGANIZATION NEWS

Plans for the poultry show on Dec. 19 are being worked out as the day draws nearer. Much interest has been manifested in the poultry show as something new in the parish.

Approximately one hundred seventy-five men attended the Holy Name Communion Breakfast last Sunday. A brief talk on the CATHOLIC COURIER was given by Edward Esse, Associate Editor. The men who are conducting the drive for the CATHOLIC COURIER are expected to turn in their final report this week. The drive was undertaken in an effort to carry out the wishes of Bishop Kennedy to have "A Catholic Courier" in every Catholic home.

FR. TOLSTER SPEAKER

By Marcellite Schroeder
Senior Sodality of St. Vincent's Parish held a meeting Monday in the Boy Scout Cabin following special services in the Church in honor of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. These services consisted of the Rosary and Litany of the Blessed Virgin and the celebration of Benediction by the Rev. Joseph McCarthy. The children's choir sang and their services were greatly appreciated.

After these services a short business meeting was held during which a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a Christmas party. This committee consists of Helena Culp, Social Life Chairman, Agnes McGuire, Vivian Dell and Betty Bennett. Father Tolster, recently appointed assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, addressed the girls on the topic of "Saints and Sanctity" some of the major points of his address were the meaning that the words sanctity and saintliness have acquired due to their disuse or to their modern and mistaken usage that men using these words in describing a person have come to mean something hypocritical or at the very least something completely disapproved of by the world at large. That Saints were real men, real people who influence our lives to a great extent today, that there was something in their lives being men of the world and that certain something was their intense belief in God. Saints were not morose or melancholy men with long faces but people who of necessity, because of their firm hope of eternal joy and gladness, had to be joyous. Father Tolster pointed to Saint Anthony as an example, telling us that Anthony could always be recognized in a crowd because of his smile. He closed his address by saying that to put Sanctification into practice might be easier than we think and if we looked around we could perhaps find many people who are striving to follow the Saints in their daily lives and that his listeners as Socialists could do no harm in trying Rose D'Arcangelo, president of the Sodality, expressed her thanks to Father Tolster for his address, as did Father McCarthy.

Refreshments were then served and the meeting closed on a social note.

The following were present: Misses Rose D'Arcangelo, Julia D'Arcangelo, Vivian Dell, Antoinette Alotto, Esther Stevens, Betty Bennett, Betty Brown, Carmella Jarlma, Lucille Hamilton, Ann Cotter, Agnes McGuire, Helena Culp, Hertha Godley, Mary Dee, Mrs. Mary Lindsley, Mrs. Katherine Carney, Father Joseph McCarthy and Father Tolster and Marcellite Schroeder.

Polish Friars Minor Plan New Monastery

GRAND RAPIDS. The Order of Friars Minor, Polish Province, will establish a monastery here about Jan. 1 at the invitation of the Most Rev. Joseph C. Plagens, Bishop of Grand Rapids.

Ten priests and several Brothers of the Province, which has its motherhouse in Pulaski, Wis., will be sent by the Very Rev. Isadore Cwiklinski, O.F.M., Provincial, to found the community on the former Melvin J. Clark estate here, which comprises six acres of extensively planted ground, a 22-room main house and some smaller buildings.

CHRISTMAS WINDOWS

There was no any Arctic League in that town and Tommy never had Christmas until December 31st. That wouldn't have happened in Elmira — not with the Arctic League. Just look Miss S. toys for every one of the children even the sled Jimmy wanted so bad and the doll Martha had begged for. Can you believe it — I almost can't. And wouldn't you think that was enough — but go see these cards. You told me they mean shoes, rubbers, warm underwear, caps and mittens for everyone of my babies. Huh, they're some men started the Arctic League. Maybe they did but God had a lot to do with putting the idea in their minds and hearts.

Such Windows as These. It is because they have looked through such windows and know folks, brave fathers, mothers and sturdy little children that the Arctic League of Elmira believes in Christmas in every home for everybody. Thanks to this great organization, wistful faces are not pressed against cold panes outside store windows but bright, eager eyes look through the windows of homes upon a world that is still bright because the Arctic League has not broken faith with the children of Elmira and Chemung County.
