HOLY FAMILY, Auburn

$13,000 GIVEN PASTOR

A check for $13,000 representing the fund raised through Holy Name Society activities for the past year was presented to the Very Rev. John A. Conway, V.F. pastor, at the annual Holy Name Society banquet of Holy Family Church, Auburn, Dec. 13. Andrew F. McLane, supervisor of the Tuesday evening social parties presented Dean Conway with the check. More than 400 were present for the banquet held in Holy Family Auditorium. Carl Snively, football coach of Cornell University was principal speaker and stressed the value of physical education as a part of the scholastic training of youth. Guests of honor included Dean Conway, the Rev. John B. Crowley, the Rev. John J. Healy, the Rev. Donald M. Cleary of Ithaca, the Rev. William E. Davis and the Rev. Francis Harding. Toastmaster Irving Lynch was presented by John Grauey, president of the Holy Name Society. His appreciation of the efforts of the Holy Name Society members was expressed by Dean Conway in accepting the magnificent gift. Father Crowley spoke briefly and Coach Snively concluded his talk by showing motion pictures of the Cornell-Harvard, Cornell-Navy, Cornell-Syracuse and Cornell-Penn football games played this year. "Jackie" Doyle entertained with vocal numbers. Patriotic and popular songs were sung by the men. The Murray Brothers were in charge of the turkey dinner which was served by members of the Rosary Society and Sacred Heart League.

ST. MARY'S, Auburn

TRUE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The meaning of the "True Christmas Spirit" was explained by the Rev. Dennis Hickey, moderator at the December meeting of the Senior Sodality of Mary of St. Mary's Church, held Dec. 10 in Lyceum Hall. "The World," said Father Hickey, "has so commercialized Christmas that Catholics are swept along into it."

James Elsbree, William McDonald, Barbara Burns, Eileen Cuddy, Augustus Pine, Eleanor Sake as Laura Cram, and others in the cast. (A complete review will be given next week.) Homes Sullivan displayed his artistic flair in designing the two sets for the production. The stage sets for "Royal Family" and "What a Life" were under his direction. Mary Hesburgh assisted him in this latest play.

He urged the Socialists to offer a spiritual preparation for Christmas by offering prayers and works of the day, and to have a meditation of five minutes each day. He explained what it would mean to the Socialists and to the entire world at large.

Opening prayer at the meeting one hour of the office of Our Lady was led by Adelaide Dore, all chairman of the Catholic Truth Committee. Reports were made by Frances Hatt, secretary, Margaret Ryan, treasurer, Gertrude Cora, chairman of the Eucharistic Committee, Helen O'Rourke of Our Lady's Committee and Jeanne Carr of the Apostolic Committee. A letter was read by Marvonne Reizen, prefect, from the Red Cross thanking the girls who worked on the recent drive.

A covered dish supper will be held in January by both the Junior and Senior Societies. Mary Ganev has been appointed chairman of the Senior Group. Mary Ganev, chairman of the Membership Committee has appointed the following girls to assist her: Florence Driscoll, Mary Bennett, Dorothy Jackson, Jeanne Carr, Margaret Lenahan, Helen Quigley, Margaret Ryan and Mary Catalano. The meeting was brought to a close with a prayer by Father Hickey. Following the meeting a one act play was enjoyed, under the direction of Margaret Ryan. The following were members of the cast: Patricia Robinson, Anne Merriman, Margaret Dolan, Mary Catalano, Anne Murphy, Frances Hatt, Catherine Burns and Margaret Ryan. Christmas gifts were exchanged after the play.

CHRISTMAS CHARITY AUBURN — Arrangements for their Christmas Charity were made by members of the Rosary and Scapular Society of St. Mary's Church at a party held Dec. 12 in Lyceum Hall. The party was held for the welfare work of the society including the Christmas Tree for the children, remembrances to the residents of the County Home and other charitable work of the society during the holiday season. JUNIOR SODALITY MEETS AUBURN Monthly meeting of the Junior Sodality of Our Lady of St. Mary's Parish was held Monday evening, Dec. 8, in Lyceum Hall. A large number of Socialists was present. Short talks were given by several of the members. Plans for the annual Covered Dish Supper to be held in January were discussed. After the business meeting games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

K.C. Auxiliary Aids Needy at Christmas

AUBURN — A gala Christmas Party was held by members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of Columbus, in the K. of C. Home, December 17. Supper and a Christmas tree were featured. Presents were brought for distribution to needy children in the county. Mrs. Ronald Cox, chairman, and Mrs. John Synnott, co-chairmen, were assisted by Mrs. Arthur Donnelly, Miss Ida Ferry, Mrs. Carmen Colletta, Mrs. William Holihan, Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Mrs. Joseph McLean, Miss Margaret Reilly, Mrs. William T. Conway and Mrs. J. Harold Wright. "Kindly words, sympathizing attentions, watchfulness against wounding peoples' sensitiveness—these cost very little, but they are priceless in their value."

Funeral Rites of the Week in Auburn
