Brothers Ordained Same Day

The two brothers of the same religious Congregation were ordained priests on the same day and celebrated their first Mass on the same morning in the same church, St. Paul's, in Manhattan. They are the Rev. Raphael F. T. and the Rev. Joseph A. T. They were ordained December 19, in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at the Catholic University of America. They are members of the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity, Silver Spring, Md., where there are three other pairs of brothers stationed. (Caption photo: (N.C.W.C.))

Holy Childhood Association

Rev. John S. Randall
DIRECTOR

A MERRY CHRISTMAS!

We take time out this morning to wish you all the merriest Christmas ever. We hope that you will enjoy all the happiness of Christmas Day, and we know for sure that when the Infant Babe comes to your heart you will be the happiest boys and girls in the world. Why? Because boys and girls, you have caught the real meaning of Christmas, that of cheerful giving. You certainly must be happy knowing that you have made so many little people, so terribly unfortunate, a great deal happier through your Christmas charity. Your sale of seals will reach an all time record we know, and for it we are more than grateful. Many Holy Childhood Orphanages will be so much brighter because of it.

So then enjoy yourselves to the fullest during the holidays, and you may be sure that I shall remember each and everyone of you on Christmas morning in my Mass, asking the Babe of Bethlehem to shower His choicest blessings on the best boys and girls in the whole world.

NEWSWEEK

I know you'll excuse me again this week boys and girls, if I just breeze right along with a mere mention of your wonderful efforts. We are positively swamped with mail, and we are allowed only just so much space.

The first is from St. Mary's Commercial who want a little Chinese girl named Mary Pauline.

The Sixth grade of Nazareth Hall want Edward Robert their fifth baby to come from India and the Fourth grade of Nazareth Hall want a little Eskimo boy named after one of their classmates who recently went to Hazel Lawrence Joseph.

Mary Ann De Luca Fourth Grade Captain from St. Francis Xavier wants to ransom little Mary for the Baby Jesus.

The Sixth grade of St. Hyacinth's, Auburn, are so glad to be able to ransom little Anthony Paul who is to come from Alabama. St. Andrew's School are here with several ransoms late morning Christmas.

The Sixth South want Marjorie Torres, a baby from our own city. First grade North want Mary Ann Derleth an Indian with red white and blue feathers in her cap. An Eskimo is the choice of the Seventh South, her name is to be Mary Agatha.

The Fourth Grade girls are doing their best to keep up with the boys with their ransom of Joan Gagner, an Indian.

The Eighth grade North want Neil Joseph, a little boy from China. That's some report!

The Second grade of St. Stephen's, Geneva, want Mary Anne to come from China. A little Indian girl named Mary is the selection of St. Mary's School.

Two babies Mary and Joseph is the request of St. Anthony's School, Rochester.

To the far away war-torn land of Honolulu, Hawaii, goes the ransom for Mary Patricia, the choice of the Seventh and Eighth grades of St. Patrick's School, Mt. Morris. St. Joseph's School is here with a host of girls this morning with five ransoms, the First and Second Mary Josephine, the Third and Fourth Mary Ann, the Fifth and Sixth Teresa, the Seventh and Eighth Josephine all to come from Puerto Rico and then we have one Chinese baby John Anthony, who was ransomed through the personal efforts of John Vespa, a pupil of the Fifth grade of St. Joseph's School. And then they sent their dues paid in full to the amount of $1700. The Fifth and Sixth grades of Nativity School, Brookport, want to ransom a little Chinese baby named Michael Paul.

Frank Berganows of Nativity School would like to ransom Mary Ann for his classmates a little Indian girl she is to be.

A thousand thanks to each of you for your ransoms. There isn't another gift that would please the Prince of Peace more than another little soul saved and brought to His feet.

Madonna Prominent In Museum Display

A Madonna and Child in polychromed limestone, recent acquisition of the Cleveland Museum of Art, has been given a prominent place in the Christmas display at the museum. Surrounding the Madonna and Child were other portrayals of the Virgin Mother in sculpture, painting, engraving, tapestries, ivory illumination, gold and enamel, among them a Tintoretto Madonna of the 1560 period.

Three galleries were occupied by the Christmas display. The children's section features the art work of the pupils of Sister M. Theobald S.S.J., recently displayed at Sisters' College, where they were made by the children.
