CATHOLIC HOSPITALS PREPARE FOR WAR NEEDS

Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, Archbishop Francis J. Spellman, of New York, and Mayor LaGuardia, U. S. Civilian Defense head, confer at the Archbishop's house, for the purpose of preparing St. Vincent's Hospital to meet the war-time emergency Catholic hospitals throughout the nation are offering their facilities to the President to meet the present war needs. Student Nurses Fete Others At Christmas

Climaxing activities of the Christmas season, the student nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital entertained at their annual Christmas Dance, Monday, Dec. 29, from 9 to 1, in the Dunn Memorial auditorium.

John Hynes and Jerry Kendall were co-chairmen of the event.

The Christmas schedule began with a party Dec. 19 in the auditorium. The first-year students presented a pageant under the direction of Patricia Linehan and Virginia O'Malley.

Following the pageant the students assembled in the large living room around the Christmas tree which was placed by the fire-place. Santa Claus was present and distributed presents to the faculty and supervisors.

About 26 student nurses journeyed to Bressport, Dec. 21, to entertain residents of the Chemung County Home. An informal program of songs and readings, was given and candy was given to each member of the home.

On Dec. 22 the patients in the hospital were serenaded by the nurses' choir with a program of Christmas carols. The nurses in uniforms and capes circulated through the hospital corridors bringing the message of Bethlehem to those confined to the institution.

The singing was led by Katherine Hyssey who was also chairman of the evening's activity.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 23, the student nurses were hosts to the small children of the neighborhood. Santa Claus was again present to distribute candy, toys and clothing to the little tots.

Miss Curran, Betrothed

The engagement of Miss Mary Catherine Curran to Yonston Sekella was announced Saturday at a luncheon given at the Country Club by Miss Alice E. Curran, sister of the bride-elect.

Miss Curran is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Curran, 376 W. Clinton St., and a niece of the late M. E. McElligott, well known Elmira.

Mr. Sekella is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Sekella. He is connected with the engineering department of the Eclipse Machine Division of the Bendix Aviation Corp.

Mr. Sekella is prominent in aviation circles, being president of the Elmira Area Searing Corp. He has been active in the Elmira Gliding Club for many years and has participated in the National Searing Contests. He is also an airplane pilot.

For in many things we all offend. If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities, Lord, who shall stand? word, the same is a perfect man. Psalms, CXXIX, 3.

The film contains a collection of spiritual and temporal values. The film with its materialistic emphasis is completely contrary to the Christian conclusion that religion is an ethical and moral program.
