

Rosaries For Service Men Is NCGW Aim

Elmira Deanery, National Council of Catholic Women made plans for the collection of unused rosaries, to be given to men in the armed forces at their meeting Thursday evening in Dunn Memorial.

Feature of the evening was a review of Dr. Cronin's famed book, "Keys of the Kingdom," which was given by Miss Eleanor M Gallagher.

Miss Mary Newsome, deanery president, has received a request from the Chaplains' Aid Association to make the Rosary the organization's spiritual chain of defense. The message received follows:

"The supply of Rosaries has almost reached the vanishing point and we are now facing the acute problem of trying to furnish the chaplains with thousands of Rosaries for Catholic boys in service. In this we urgently ask your help.

"We are sure that many unused Rosaries can be obtained, but not without your cooperation. Asking your friends for surplus Rosaries is a simple task for you and will be of great service to the chaplains."

St. Joseph's Parish ELECTION SLATED

Election of officers for the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Church will be held on Monday evening, Jan. 12, at a supper meeting scheduled for 5.30 o'clock. All members of the group are invited to attend, and reservations should be made by January 8 by calling Glenwood 6085.

The clubroom was appropriately decorated, and each guest received an attractive tble favor, after which were exchanged.

The dinner committee was headed by Miss Ada Meng. She was assisted by the following: Decorations and Entertainment, Anna Kowalski and Hilda Werdein, Agnes Carey and Louise McCall, Cima Cloney, Dorothy Schiltzer, Mary Schlageter and Ruth Stoller.
