PRAY FOR SERVICEMEN

By DOLORES HANEAHAN
HORNELL.—Public recitation of the Rosary is being conducted each evening at 7:30 o'clock at St. Ann's Church for the safety of the young men in service and for the general intention of world peace.

The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, pastor, has also planned to keep a perpetual vigil light burning before the Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help for the safeguard of the men of the parish who are now in the country's service.

Pupils of St. Ann's School are also joining in the Rosary Crusade. Each morning one or two grades meet in the Church to recite the Rosary for the welfare of the country and for the safety of all those at war. The pupils themselves, accompanied by their teachers, lead and respond to the Rosary devotion.

Father Dissett has strongly urged all parishioners to cooperate in this worthy crusade for peace.

At the Masses last Sunday, parishioners were urged to observe the Feast of the Holy Family, on January 11, by the reception of Holy Communion in family groups. It was also suggested that members of the family meet after Mass for a family breakfast.

Federation Building. Committees were appointed by James Waldron, president, to canvass the 18 stores selling periodicals in the city to ask their cooperation in this drive to abolish indecent literature.

Last year, the Holy Name Society conducted a similar campaign and received one hundred per cent support from the dealers. The same cooperation is anticipated this year.

Members of the Hornell Police Department have been given a list of objectional publications and have promised their full support in the drive for clean reading matter.

Brady-Shearer

Miss Kathryn Shearer, daughter of Edward H. Shearer of this city, and Robert V. Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brady of LeRoy, were married on January 5 at St. Ann's Church. The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett performed the ceremony. Miss Bernice Brady, sister of the bridegroom, and Raymond Shearer, brother of the bride, were the attendants. Robert Kelly and Joseph Curraz were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to 30 guests at the Hotel Sherwood. Later, an informal reception was held at the bride's home.

The bride is a graduate of St. Ann's School, Hornell High School and St. Joseph's School of Nursing in Elmira. She is a member of Alpha Zeta Sorority. Mr. Brady is a graduate of St. Peter's School and LeRoy High School and is employed at Lapp Insulator Company in LeRoy. Mr. and Mrs. Brady will make their home in LeRoy.

Literature Drive

The Holy Name Society of St. Ann's Church will again join in the drive for clean literature, in cooperation with the National Campaign for Decent Literature, according to plans made at a meeting of the Society last Wednesday evening in the Green Room of the

TWO WEDDINGS HELD

Miss Grace Ann Nitsche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clement F. Nitsche of 213 Walnut St. and Corporal Charles W. Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram M. Barker, 498 Hammond St., were married on Dec. 30.—Rev. Lawrence W. Cannon, now pastor at St. Gabriel's Church, Hammondsport, officiated.

Miss Jeanne Bellby was maid of honor. Charles J. Nitsche, brother of the bride, was best man.

Cleland Barker and Robert Nitsche were ushers.

After a wedding breakfast at the Baron Steuben Hotel, a reception was held at the home of the bride. After a motor trip of several days, the newlyweds will make their home at 2 Bryden Circle, Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Miss Frances Madeline Panyard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Panyard, 235 West Second Street, was married last Thursday at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's Church to Charles Burr Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burr Gibson, 371 East Third Street.

The Rev. John F. Albert performed the ceremony. Miss Ruth Panyard, 325 West Second Street, was maid of honor. Donald Barnard, 373 East Third Street, was best man for Mr. Gibson.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the Crystal City Grill.

After a wedding trip by train to New York City, the couple will live at 121 West Third Street.

Interment of Mrs. Edward McGrath took place last Thursday in St. Mary's Cemetery, Corning. Rev. John F. Albert, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, gave the final blessing at the grave.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Bernard's Church in Bradford.

Among those who were present for the burial were friends from Bradford and Olean: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quin, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Quin, Mrs. Fred Foster, Justin Foster and Miss Mary Hopp.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Broderick of Corning attended the funeral services in Bradford.

BISHOP HOWARD DEDICATES NEW LATIN SCHOOL BUILDING

COVINGTON, Ky.—The Most Rev. Francis W. Howard, Bishop of Covington, officiated at the blessing of the Covington Latin School at dedication ceremonies held here. The services began in St. Mary's Cathedral, where the dedicatory sermon was delivered by the Rev. Leo J. Streck, Diocesan Superintendent of Schools. A procession to the school building followed.

In a letter to the clergy announcing the ceremony, His Excellency had asked all who could to attend "as an encouragement to the teachers of the school, the students and their parents, and a token of appreciation to all who have made the sacrifices on which the work is founded."

Constructed of brick and stone the school is modern in all respects.

Would Hasten Development Of Good Neighbor Policy

NEW ORLEANS.—No effort should be spared in hastening development of the good-neighbor policy so that the Western hemisphere may present a solid front against totalitarianism, the Most Rev. Joseph F. Rummel, Archbishop of New Orleans, said in summarizing a symposium conducted by the Inter-American culture group of the local organization of International Federation of Catholic Alumni, which was held at Loyola University of the South.

"The United States in the past," he said, "has expended considerable effort in increasing its commerce with its southern neighbors. We still want that trade, but it is essential that we get to learn more about the people and culture of Ibero-America."
