Fr. Baumann Leaves For Brazil Mission

Hoping to do his part in cementing the good-neighbor policy with South America, the Rev. Louis Baumann, C.SS.R., who has been attached to St. Joseph's Church, here, left this week for his mission post in Ponta Grossa, Brazil.

The Redemptorist Father, who is now a veteran of the South American missions, told the CATHOLIC COURIER, Tuesday, that the Brazilians appreciate Catholicity and welcome the Catholic priest and his ministrations.

He returned from Brazil last February to visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Baumann, of 75 Kirkland Road, and was due to leave in June but unexpected developments prevented his going to the mission until now.

American priests active in mission work in South America have seven foundations in Brazil and two in Paraguay.

Father Baumann was eager to return to his mission labors among the people whose principal language is Portugese.
