Immaculate Parish
SODALITY'S ANNIVERSARY

By MARGERY BERNARD
 On Monday evening, Jan. 5, the Victorian Room of the Sagamore Hotel was the scene of the 10th Anniversary Formal Dinner of the Young Ladies' Sodality of our Church. His Excellency, Bishop Kearney was present and was the principal speaker.
 All priests of the parish, including Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph B. Cameron, pastor; Rev. Donald J. Murphy, Rev. Charles V. Boyle and Rev. George S. Wood, Moderator of the Sodality, were present, as were Rev. Frederick Wise and the Rev. Leo A. Smith, past moderators of the Sodality. The prefects of the Sodality for each of the preceding ten years were present as well as 163 Sodality.
 Miss Muriel Gildea gave several musical selections and Miss Marilyn Moore gave a brief history of the Sodality during the past decade.

Members of the Cub Committee of Cub Pack 13 met recently to outline their program for 1942. Mr. Howard Seibert, new Cubmaster succeeding Frederick Bailey and Mr. Martin Herbst, chairman of the Cub Committee succeeding James Rogers, presided over the meeting. The Den Mothers for the year: Mrs. R. J. Steeb, Mrs. Frederick Bailey, Mrs. Howard Seibert and Mrs. James Thompson considered various plans for their respective dens for the winter and spring terms and plans were also made to take care of the greatly increased enrollment.

Jewish Honor

Boston. — The New England Council of B'nai B'rith, Jewish organization, has presented to Representative John W. McCormack, a gold medallion and plaque in recognition of his meritorious public service.

And the smoke of the incense of the prayers of the Saints ascended up before God.—Apoc. VIII. 4.

Red Cross Enlists Aid Of Nazareth Students

Whirr-r-r-r—
 Every sewing machine, electric and pedal, and all portables that can be pressed into service are being worked overtime these days by the 350 members of the Nazareth Junior Red Cross unit. This group has been functioning for the past month since its formation in early December by Mrs. Charles Stearns of the American Red Cross.

The young ladies are not only sewing all kinds of garments, but also knitting sweaters, mittens and beanies. Still others have volunteered for clerical work at the Red Cross headquarters. A committee of the Mothers has been organized to preside over the various groups.

Eagerness to do something for our country has fired these spirited young Catholic Americans to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

The First Aid Class that has been in session since October is ending its course this week. Thus, another youthful band of trained workers has been added to Rochester's defense.

Form Red Cross Unit In St. Michael's Parish

The Daughters of Mary of St. Michael's Church have organized a unit of the Red Cross with a large registration. Mrs. Martha Engert announced this week. Classes in knitting and sewing and a First Aid course will be conducted to a group of fifty women, beginning next week.

The organization at its recent meeting collected a sizable sum to donate to the Red Cross.

Moderation keeps constant watch. It is the burglar-alarm that awakens the master when the thieving servant attempts an entrance to the inner shrine of the soul.—Cardinal O'Connell.
