FAMILY COMMUNION

By DELORES E. HANRAHAN HORNELL. The Feast of the Holy Family on Jan. 11 was observed most fittingly in St. Ann's Parish, when a large number of parishioners received Holy Communion in family groups. Later many families went to hotels and restaurants in the city for breakfast.
The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, pastor, has expressed his appreciation that such a large number of parishioners cooperated with Bishop Kearney's request in the observance of the Feast.

Socially or not, cooperate wholeheartedly and volunteer for whatever type of defense work they were best suited.
Providing a large enough group takes active part in the program, teachers in the various defense fields will be obtained to instruct the young women as a group. Dr. George E. Taylor, city health officer, and a director of defense in the field of First Aid, has been invited to address the group at a future meeting.

Henry Pollinger Dies

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Jan. 14, at St. Ann's Church for Henry Pollinger, well-known resident of Hornell. Mr. Pollinger, who had been ill for some time, was 70 years old. Born in Austria, Mr. Pollinger had made his home in Hornell for the past 26 years.
He is survived by his widow, also four sons, William, Gustave, Charles and Richard Pollinger, all of Hornell, and a daughter, Miss Mary Pollinger, also of Hornell.

Plan Defense Study

The young ladies of St. Ann's Parish met in the Green Room of the Federation Building last Wednesday night to discuss their part in national defense. The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, pastor, asked that all young women of the parish, whether active members of the
