Fr. Brennan's Book In Second Printing

MILWAUKEE.—"The Ghost of Kingdom Come," one of the latest juvenile books from the pen of Rochester's Father Gerald T. Brennan, has just gone into its second large printing.

Father Brennan's book contains 16 original stories for children (7-10) in which the central figure is a ghost introduced with the idea of showing that the saints and inhabitants of Heaven are really the "Ghosts of Kingdom Come."

Besides this book, Father Brennan has three others to his credit: "Angel City," "Angel Food" and "The Man Who Dared a King." He is at present working on a fourth volume which will be released late this year.
