THE GREAT HARVEST

By RALPH J. CARPENTER
"The harvest is great, but the laborers are few." These are the words spoken by Christ when He walked upon this earth over nineteen hundred years ago.

Today we repeat those same words especially here in America. Many Priests, Brothers and Sisters are needed to help take over the responsibilities as laborers in the vineyard of Christ.

During these times when the flames of war and hatred are spreading over the world, the laborers are having a very difficult time in spreading the Catholic Faith. In fact, some are not even allowed to teach Christianity to those who would gladly receive the gift of Faith. Many missionaries have already been killed during this war and their churches have been bombed because of the dictator's greed for power.

We, as Catholic Americans, do not realize what a tremendous job it will be to continue the work of Christ after this war. Let us as good Catholics remember that there are many American men and women who have sacrificed their homes and lives as missionaries to spread the word of God, and as for those who have already given their lives in this war, we must continue to teach the new laborers who are enlisting in the great army of Christ, and who will some day refill the vacancies of those who have died heroically with the words of peace upon their dying lips.

We must try to remind our Catholic youth that there are many vacancies to be filled in the missionary fields after this great world conflict, and when the dictators are beaten to the ground, the light of peace shall shine again, and the great army of Christ shall reign throughout the war-torn world.

In closing please allow me to bring these two thoughts to your mind:

1. Let me remind the Mission-minded you that now is the time for all good Catholics to come to the aid of their Holy and Apostolic Church, and to prepare themselves for the great call of our Holy Father, the Vicar of Christ upon earth, and the Master of the Vineyard of Christ.

2. Let us all remember those great words of the lovable St. Ambrose, "There is no higher dignity than to serve Christ."
