

CYO Basketball Leagues

FIRST ROUND RESULTS

After the second week of play in the C Y O Basketball League the teams from St Cecilia's and St. Casimir's remain undefeated. It looks as though the first round championship will be decided when these teams meet each other on Monday, February 2.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

In the feature game of the week, St. Anthony's threw a scare into St. Casimir's before dropping a 12-11 decision. With the score tied, J Klugo and D Resavage sank foul shots to give their team a two-point lead and victory. In their other game, St. Casimir's defeated SS. Peter and Paul 26-11. St. Cecilia's also added two victories to their list by defeating SS. Peter and Paul 25-8, and St. Patrick's, 22-15. St. Patrick's dropped two tough games, one by 6 points and the other by 4 points. St. Mary's continued to keep St. Patrick's company in the cellar by losing to St. Anthony's after holding them even for three quarters. St. Charles moved into third place in the standings by defeating St. Patrick's 16-12.

Standings - Jan. 24, 1942

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

The standings in this league remained virtually the same as they were last week. St. Cecilia's won two games, defeating SS. Peter and Paul 26-24 and St. Patrick's 24-10 for their first defeat. St. Casimir's also won two games with last quarter rallies. In their first game they defeated St. Anthony's 25-17 by virtue of three last-minute baskets. In their second game they dropped SS. Peter and Paul 26-12. After battling on even terms for three quarters, St. Anthony's closed the last quarter with a flurry of baskets to drop St. Mary's 23-14. SS. Peter and Paul's found the going too tough and dropped decisions to both St. Cecilia's and St. Casimir's. St. Patrick's won rather handily from St. Charles' by a score of 24-12 and held St. Cecilia's even for the first half but went to pieces in the second half and fell from the ranks of the undefeated.

St. Hyacinth's Win First Half

AUBURN — Plenty of action marked the contests last week in the Catholic Basketball League staged on the Roman A. C. court in Clark Street. The St. Hyacinth's came through with colors flying with six wins to their credit as the first half of the schedule was completed. Also winners last week were the Holy Family and the SS. Peter and Paul entries, the St. Francis tossers and the Columbian Squires being the losers. The St. Mary's team drew a bye.

In the first game of the evening, the strong SS. Peter and Paul combine defeated the Squires by the score of 31 to 20. Sidor was the big noise for the victors with seven points to his credit. Schneider led the attack for the losers, scoring nine tallies.

The hard fighting St. Francis basketweavers bowed to the Purple Flyers of Holy Family by the close count of 27 to 24. Leide paced the winners with 12 points and Synnett was runnerup with 11 tallies. Mike Giannone lead the attack of the Imps with 16 points.

In the final game of the evening, the league leading St. Hyacinth's had very little trouble in downing the St. Aloysius tossers, 27 to 19. Kott starred for the first half champs with seven points while Paulie Foselle scored 11 points for the losers.

League standings for the first half follow.

Team	Won	Lost	Aver.

Brazil State Normal School Has First Mass

RIO DE JANEIRO. — His Eminence Sebastiao Cardinal Leme da Silveira Cintra, Archbishop of Rio, officiated at the first Mass ever celebrated at the Instituto de Educacao, State normal school here for public school teachers. Communion was distributed by six priests to teachers, members of the staff, employes and students. The Mass was sponsored by a group of Catholic students and received the warm approval of the director of the school. The Catholic Church is not an experiment in any line of public and social action; it is an unqualified and demonstrated success. Cardinal O'Connell.

Because February is CATHOLIC PRESS MONTH, — a month dedicated to the progress and tremendous influence exerted by a strong and enlightening Catholic Press, SHBBHAN DEAN & CO., INC. wish to take advantage of this propitious time to extend best wishes and continued success to our own Diocesan paper, THE CATHOLIC COURIER, which has contributed in a most exemplary manner, to the advancement of a nation-wide Catholic Press — particularly, by its recent expansion through the newly inaugurated ELMIRA EDITION.
