HOLY NAME CAMPAIGN

By DOLORES E. HANRAHAN
An organized campaign to increase membership in the Holy Name Society of St. Ann's Church is now being conducted throughout the city. The men of the parish are being contacted at the industries at which they are employed. Representative workers have been appointed for each industry in the city.

Results of the campaign are made public by means of a huge poster of a thermometer which has been placed in the vestibule of the church. As membership in the Society increases, the mercury in the thermometer is colored to rise accordingly.

Definite dates for the regular monthly meetings of the Holy Name Society have been announced. Each meeting will be held on the Wednesday evening before the regular Holy Communion Sunday of the Society, which is the second Sunday of each month.

One of the major purposes of these meetings will be to encourage all men of the parish to receive Holy Communion in a body on the regular Communion Sunday. A definite increase in the reception of Holy Communion in a body has been noted for the past few months.

The following are officers of the Holy Name Society: James J. Waldron, president; Eugene Jacobs, vice-president; Charles J. O'Brien, secretary and Dominic Moray, treasurer. The Rev. John P. O'Malley is moderator of the Society.

Duties in War Time

The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett made an earnest plea last Sunday at all the Masses for increased devotion to religious duties, especially during the time of war. Father Dissett urged all parishioners who could possibly arrange to do so, to attend daily Mass.

He also requested increased attendance at the public recitation of the Rosary, which is offered each evening at 7:30 o'clock for the welfare of the men in service. Father Dissett again reminded parishioners of the worthy practice of reciting the Rosary aloud in the home daily.

Next Sunday is the Holy Communion Sunday for members of the Rosary and Altar Society. Father Dissett has requested that the women of the parish respond to the invitation to receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7 o'clock Mass.

Civilian Defense

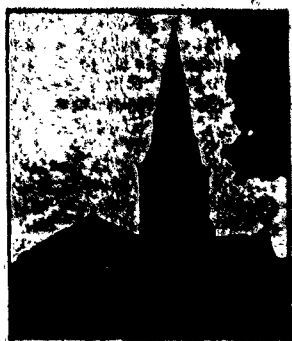

The members of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Ann's Church completed their Civilian Defense enrollments at a meeting held Monday evening in the Federation Building. It is expected that defense classes will be organized when the results of the enrollment indicate the need.

Further plans were made toward the reorganization of the Sodality. The membership drive will be completed within a few weeks.

Miss Virginia Fitzgerald is president of the Sodality. Other officers are Miss Margaret McDonald, vice-president; Miss Grace Moretti, secretary and Miss Helen Gallagher, treasurer. The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett is spiritual advisor of the Sodality.

SODALITY BANQUET HELD

Miss Rhea Cook, executive secretary of Corning Chapter of the Red Cross, was the guest speaker at the supper meeting held by the Sodality of Our Lady of Good Counsel at the Baron Stauben Hotel. Sixty-two were in attendance.

Miss Mary Hill, Sodality Prefect, presided after the Rev. John F. Albert, assistant pastor, opened the meeting with prayers.

Short talks were given by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James J. Griffin, Pastor Emeritus of St. Mary's; Rev. John C. Newcomb, Assistant pastor and Moderator of the Sodality; and the closing prayer was said by the Rev. John A. Smith, pastor.

Miss Cook stressed the value of Red Cross Training and gave special emphasis to various phases of special volunteer corps of the Red Cross. As fields of endeavor for volunteers, Miss Cook suggested staff assistance corps, nurses' aide corps, home service corps, canteen corps, motor corps and production corps.

Co-chairmen of the committee were Josephine Miller and Mary Nasser. Assisting were Henrietta Paul, Rose Parenti, Frances Morchois, Laurena Parenti, Beatrice Hanley, Marion Burrell, Madeline Stenger, Gertrude Marx, Catherine Barrett, Eileen Quinn and Barbara Pond.

Meeting Held

The Promoters of the League of the Sacred Heart held a meeting on Wednesday evening after the devotions to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Auxiliary Groups

The auxiliary fire force held a meeting on Monday evening in St. Mary's Hall. The police reserves also met in conjunction with the firefighters after which they held a special meeting of their own.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION

London.—Local army authorities are cooperating in making a success of a day of recollection which is being arranged at Notre Dame Convent, Nottingham, for Catholic officers and men and members of the women's services. The event has been posted on orders and troops living at a distance.

Every question that the heart may ask is answered as the heart would have it answered in the Christian religion. — Sister Fides
