Scout Council Greets
St. Hyacinth's Troop,
First In New Year

AUBURN — The first new unit in the Boy Scout Council for the year 1942 is Troop 20 of St. Hyacinth's Church. The Troop's first Court of Honor was held on Tuesday, Jan. 20, in the basement of the church. Parents and friends were invited.

Tenderfoot badges were presented by Scoutmaster William Kulakowski and Assistant Scoutmaster Harry Kowalczyk. After the new Tenderfoot Scouts had been congratulated by Mr. Miles C. Irish, Chairman of the Advancement Committee of the Council, Scout Executive Hazel A. Ross complimented the Troop Committee and others who had assisted in the reorganization of the troop. He stressed the importance of advancement on the part of the new boys in the troop and urged them to become Second-Class Scouts before the summer months.

Scoutmaster Kulakowski pledged his support in making possible an outdoor program for the troop and in assisting in every way to make the newly formed troop a success. Chairman Irish presided at the Court of Honor ceremonies, assisted by Peter Bommersbach, Dr. F. L. Okoniewski, Scoutmaster Kulakowski and Assistant Scoutmaster Kowalczyk. Father Vincent Welski is chairman of the committee. Other committee members are John L. Naszkiewicz and John L. Karpinski. New tenderfoot scouts are as follows: —ohn J. Graszak, Stanley Leja, Richard Czech, Arthur B. Kotl, Joseph Jakoub, John F. Smoakowski, Richard Robinson, Frank J. Pilis, and Thaddeus Pilis. Joseph Texyk is a re-registered member of the former troop 20.

Last fall the boys of Scout age in the parish appealed for help in the reorganization of Troop 20. This was accomplished with the help of members of the committee staff and the Scout Executive. After Mr. Kulakowski became Scoutmaster, several weekly meetings were held to prepare the boys for the requirements of the Tenderfoot test and the Court of Honor. Regular troop meetings will be held Friday evenings in St. Hyacinth's Church basement.

Friar Now Chaplain
San Francisco. — A Franciscan Friar will leave St. Boniface Church here to serve as chaplain with the Navy.

He is the Rev. Richard Hodge, O.F.M., one of the first priests of the Archdiocese of San Francisco to volunteer when a call for naval chaplains was recently made.

Faith, and not knowledge; the ideal and not the real—are the loves by which life moves upward.

"Lincoln-Day" Party
Scheduled Feb. 11
By Auburn K. of C.

Plans for the Pre-Lenten Party of Auburn Council Knights of Columbus center around "a patriotic theme in true American fashion," with an observance of Lincoln's Birthday because of the proximity of the date chosen for the celebration. The party will take place on Wednesday, Feb. 11. General Chairman Clarence Hey announced at a meeting of the Executive Committee, George B. Shannon and James E. Hart have been appointed chairmen.

Auburn Weddings

Lambards - Bommersbach
St. Hyacinth's Church was the scene of a pretty midwinter wedding Jan. 17, when Miss Elizabeth Catherine Bommersbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Bommersbach of 30½ State Street, became the bride of Michael Joseph Lambard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Palegrine Lambard of 201 Van Anden Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Conrad Miller, assistant pastor. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Irene Bommersbach, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Robert Tosques of this city was best man.

RITES HELD IN PENN YAN FOR DAVID HYLAND, TRUSTEE

PENN YAN — Funeral services for David Hyland, retired postal employee, were conducted on Tuesday, Jan. 27 at St. Michael's Church at 9 a. m.

Mr. Hyland died suddenly of a heart attack at his home 104 Henry Street on Jan. 21. He was a trustee of St. Michael's Church.

Mr. Hyland had been visiting the business section in the afternoon and apparently was in his usual health. He was born in Penn Yan, the son of Martin and Anne Martin Hyland and had spent his entire life in Penn Yan. He began his postal career in 1906 as a substitute city mail carrier at the local Post Office and two years later became regular carrier and for several years served as regular clerk, a position he held at the time of his retirement three years ago.

Mr. Hyland was a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Michael's Church.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Agnes Lynch Hyland; a son, John J. Hyland, C. S. C., of Moreau Seminary, Notre Dame, Indiana; two sisters, Sister M. Catherine Charlotte of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Selma, Alabama, and Mrs. Minnie H. Foley of Rochester and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral Rites of the Week in Auburn
