Need Heroic Religion Today, Avers Baroness De Hueck

A rapt audience of 250 persons in Blessed Sacrament Hall, last Sunday evening, heard the Baroness Catherine de Hueck tell of her Rendezvous with Christ in the Negro.

As a girl of twelve, she looked for adventure on the grounds of her father's estate in Russia one afternoon, and the only adventure she found was a poor old woman whom she brought home for shelter and then sent away with a good portion of silver spoons and knives and forks.

This beginning of Catherine de Hueck's adventure with God started her on a long road which led through the Red Revolution, the battlefields of Europe as a Red Cross Nurse, the slums of Toronto and Ottawa, and last of all to Negro Harlem where she hopes she may stay until she dies.

Formula Simple

The Baroness' lecture traced her journey in search of God, always giving, as she first gave the silverware. Her formula of adventure is simple: look for God among the people He loves the most, the down-and-out poor, the most bedraggled, the most cruelly treated, the hungry, the naked, the outcast. She reminded her audience that Jesus Himself gave the assurance where He might be found: "As often as you did it to one of these My least brethren, you did it to Me."

The Baroness drew a good round of applause when she humorously protested against Catholic Action at $2.50 a plate in the Waldorf Astoria. After dinner speeches about Catholic Action are not enough: they leave us complacent, she said. "It is the action that counts, and before the action must come the being being a Catholic in love with God, on fire for God, seven days a week, and not Sunday only."

Outlines Work

Briefly the Baroness outlined the work of her Friendship House at 24 West 135th St. in New York, where with a library, clubrooms, clothing dispensary, etc., she aids hundreds of Negroes, herself living in voluntary poverty with over thirty staff workers.

BARONESS DE HUECK, famed for her missionary work among the Negroes, who lectured at Blessed Sacrament Church, Rochester, Sunday night. She is scheduled to be guest speaker at Sodality of Our Lady of St. Patrick's Church, Elmira, banquet, Feb. 11.

She professed to see no startling results on the surface, but she reminded her audience that results of work for God are God's secret.

The lecture was sponsored by the Blessed Martin de Porres House which works for the Negroes of Rochester's west side, as St. Peter Claver House does for those of the east side. The Blessed Martin House is located at Clarissa St. and Adams St., the St. Peter Claver House on Rome St., near Central Ave.

It was the last lecture of a tour which took the Baroness across 11,000 miles of the United States since October.

ROCHESTER DIOCESAN COUNCIL

National Council of Catholic Women
Office—Catholic Evidence Library
Main Floor, Columbus Civic Centre

At the Rochester Deanery Council meeting on Friday, Jan. 30, we welcomed several new representatives of affiliated organizations.

Mrs. Francis Manning, representing the Parent-Teacher Association of Sacred Heart Parish, reported that at their request Msgr. Burns is offering a monthly Mass for the boys in service.

Miss Shannon, representing the Rosarians of Holy Rosary Church, announced every Thursday Mass is offered for the boys, followed by exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, closing with Benediction.

Miss Anna Verhoeven, representing our newest affiliation, the Archconfraternity of the Holy Family, Single Women's Branch, St. Joseph's Church, reported on work done by her organization for the boys in service.

Mrs. Peter Carlin representing the Altar Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church had a splendid report on their activities for the Chaplains' Aid, and brought in 42 rosaries besides several prayer books and leaflets which we have forwarded in the name of her organization to the Chaplains' Aid Association.

In response to our inquiry, the Chaplains' Aid tells us that they will gladly accept broken rosaries, so labeled, as these can be repaired.

Representatives of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women attended the Interfaith Luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday.

WAR IS WOMEN'S BUSINESS TOO

More than 25 per cent of all workers in war industries are women. As the supply of skilled and semi-skilled manpower moves toward exhaustion—as the war effort calls greater numbers of men to active fighting—the percentage of women in victory-making occupations will skyrocket.

Women and girls are today operating lathes and punch presses. They are soldering, arc-welding, winding, and grinding electrical planters, valve grinders and barrel runners. They are engaged in making newclison instruments, assembling parts, sewing, folding and inspecting parachutes.

For war is women's business as it is the business of her soldier husband, her son or her sweetheart. Just as we are immediately aware of the recreational, welfare, spiritual and social needs of our service men, so are we concerned about similar needs of women employed in war industries. Likewise are we conscious of the need to maintain and strengthen their morale, for if we permit hazards for women in war industries we create hazards for men. The USO through six cooperating agencies is making it possible for these women living in crowded communities, working three shifts, sleeping in trailer camps and crowded boarding houses to enjoy wholesome recreation under trained leadership.

Through the Women's Division of the National Catholic Community Service, one of these six agencies, a "home away from home" is provided in clubhouses designed to help re-create for lonely women and girls an atmosphere related as closely as possible to the home back home.

Dancing, social games, bowling, crafts, photography, study clubs, forums, first aid and knitting classes are only a few of the activities which help dispel loneliness and fill leisure hours with pleasant play and companionship.

The future of America, her ideals, her democracy, her vision and imagination rests largely in the hands of the growing army of women who have elected to keep the "cradle of industry" rocking through to victory.—Women's Division, N.C.C.S.

We are happy to announce that WHAM will carry the CALL TO YOUTH Program "Women at Work in War Time" on Saturdays during February, March, April and May, at 1:30 to 1:45 P. M. Eastern Standard Time. Topic for Feb. 7: "This Brave New World."

Be sure to listen in. Copies of the broadcast will be mailed on request to your local station.

Work and Play Join Hands At Nazareth College

By BONNIE GARDNER
entertainment, Betty Barrett Clean-
"Business before pleasure" is the slogan to be followed by the girls of Nazareth College this week; and this business consists of concentrating all their efforts on the examinations going on all this week.

The first pleasure after the exams will take place on Monday, Feb. 8, at 7 P. M. when the Freshman will entertain the Sophomores at the traditional Fresh-Soph Party. This year a sleighride has been planned after which an entertainment and lunch will wind up the evening in the Auditorium.

Honorary Chairman of this affair is Jean Foley; General Chairman is Rosemary Welch. Chairman of Invitations is Ruthie Arbor; Transportation, Mary Mollenzahn; Publication, Mary Jeanne Meyer; Refreshments, Beverley Jones. Entertainment, Betty Barrett. Clean-Up, Jeanne Chlavaroli.

Next on the calendar is the Senior Dance to take place Friday evening, Feb. 13 in the school auditorium. Madeline Murphy is chairman of the dance and Bernadine Baier is chairman of the orchestra committee.

Now that we are out at the new college, the Mission Unit is proud and has every right to be proud of its own Mission room where it can conduct its business and keep the famous candy desk. This Unit is occupied with making plans for the near future included in which are a play and a special field day.

Archconfraternity Annual Dinner Set

The Archconfraternity of the Holy Family of St. Joseph's Church will hold its annual dinner on Monday evening, Feb. 9 in the school hall. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

Miss Marie Mayer, president of the organization, has appointed Miss Ada Meng, general chairman of the affair, and her assistants will include the following:

Reception, Miss Marie Mayer, Miss Ida Schueler, Miss Dorothy Schlitzer and Miss Lucille Wisler; arrangements, Miss Loretta Angele, Miss Lulu Angele, Miss Louise Brown and Miss Mary Witzel; reservations, Miss Minnie Verhoeven and Miss Ada Meng.

Guests of honor for the dinner will be the Rev. Stephen W. Aulbach, C.S.S.R., rector of St. Joseph's Church, and the Rev. Francis X. Dotzler, C.S.S.R., director of the Society.

The committee in charge has made elaborate plans for this dinner and a cordial welcome is extended to all members of the Archconfraternity to attend.

Junior Prom Set At Mercy High

Highlighting the month of February's activities at Our Lady of Mercy High School will be the Junior Prom, the first in the history of the school. The date for the dance to be held in the school gymnasium from 8:30 to 12, is Friday, Feb. 13.

With a patriotic background of red, white, and blue, dancers will sway to the music of Tim Kelly's Melody Monarchs, in a novel program dance.

Chairman of the dance and in charge of tickets is Marion Dalton while Mary Quinn heads the decoration committee.

CANNOT BE INDIFFERENT

"To be a Catholic, to call oneself a Catholic, nay, to belong to Catholic organizations and associations and at the same time be indifferent to the interest of the Catholic press is a patent absurdity."—Pius X.
