MILWAUKEE—The Rev. Gerald T. Brennan's writing style for children is gaining more popularity every day. Another of his books, "Angel City," has just gone into its fourth large printing. It was announced today by the Bruce Publishing Company, Milwaukee. Father Brennan is pastor of St. Bridget's parish, Rochester.

Captains for the Drive: Mrs. William P. Fluegler, Mrs. Joseph Goschke, Mrs. Edward Conmy and Mrs. Charles St. James. Chairman of Hostesses: Mrs. John H. Gould. Cards and Tallies: Mrs. Joseph Eckl and Mrs. Joseph Marcille. Table Prizes: Mrs. Charles St. James and Mrs. Grace Bettin. Decorations: Mrs. Charles Jones and Mrs. Frank Dykell. En-

This book is a compilation of stories which Father Brennan tells in charming, simple language, building them around little morals and leading every one with delightful humor. All the stories are cleverly illustrated.

EXAMPLE OF SACRIFICE "I would make any sacrifice even to the pinning of my ring, pectoral cross and sash, in order to support a Catholic newspaper." —Pius X.

Besides this book Father Brennan has written several others. They include: "Angel Food," "The Ghost of Kingdom Come," and "The Man Who Dared a King." At present Father Brennan is completing another manuscript which will be published late this year.
