HOLY NAME - BOY SCOUT COMMUNION BREAKFAST

The Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church will sponsor their fourth Annual Holy Name-Boy Scout Joint Communion Breakfast on Sunday, February 8.

The Communion breakfast has been sponsored by the Holy Name Society for the past three years and has met with great success. This year the society is endeavoring to make this affair the biggest, due to the fact that this is the first time the affair has been held in National Boy Scout Week.

Plans, according to Chairman George Paul, are for both organizations to meet at 7:30 o'clock in the school hall, where the procession will form as man and boy, march side by side to the church to attend the 8 o'clock Mass and to receive Holy Communion. Communion is to be offered for the men in the armed forces of the country by both men and boys. After Mass, they will return to the Auditorium for the breakfast which will be served by the Girl Scouts of the parish.

Toastmaster Edward Haubner has arranged the program to be presented after breakfast and will introduce such speakers as Daniel Earls of the Rochester Boy Scout Executive Committee, who last year gave a brilliant speech of scouting which was very interesting to all present, Lewis Schur Secretary of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name

Union, his subject will be "Present and Future Holy Name Men." The Rev. William W. Heisel, pastor of Holy Family Church and spiritual director of the Holy Name Society will address the gathering on the Communion breakfast as a spiritual event.

Chairman George Paul has assisting him Edward Haubner, Joseph St. John, Joseph Weidmann, Elmer Walters, Anthony Hettel, Philip Fess, and George Bartholomay.
