Perpetual Help Parish

PRESENT FLAGS

A patriotic and impressive ceremony preceded the High Mass last Sunday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church when Commandery No. 40 and Ladies' Auxiliary No. 45, Knights of St. John, presented the Papal and American flags to the church.

After the presentation, the flags were blessed by the Rev. Francis Hoefen, pastor. As the papal flag was placed in its position, strains of the Te Deum filled the church. Before the American flag was carried to its post in the sanctuary, it was held before the parishioners, and the entire congregation sang the National Anthem, while the uniformed ranks of the commandery and the auxiliary stood at attention.

In accepting the flags in the name of the parish, Father Hoefen thanked the Knights and Ladies and reminded the parishioners of the significance of the flags.

The High Mass that followed was offered by Father Hoefen for the welfare of the men of the parish who are in the service and that a just and lasting peace will come to the world.

Prayers for the men in the service followed the Mass, after which the congregation sang the Te Deum.

Joining the Knights on the occasion were the commanding officer of the Rochester Regiment, Col. Frederick J. Wegman, in full dress uniform, and William J. Fuehrer, president of the Rochester Branch of the Catholic Central Verein of America, Commandery 40, being units of both bodies.

The regular monthly meeting of Com. 40 was held in the parish hall on Monday evening. The Rev. Jacob Rauber delivered an interesting talk. A prize bowling party is being planned.

'IRISH NIGHT' SET

Arrangements are completed for the "Irish Night" program opening the Holy Name Society's social activities on Tuesday evening, Feb. 10, in Our Lady of Perpetual Help hall.

Honorary Chairman is the Rev. William Tobin. President Anthony F. Furstoss has reports from General Chairman Harry Doolin, Vice-Chairman Thomas F. Herlihy that a good turnout is expected.

Guests of the Society will include Norman A. O'Brien, former State Senator and past president of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union, and Thomas H. O'Connor, news editor, CATHOLIC COURIER.

Scheduled to address the gathering is Jack Barry, famed CBS sports and WHEC announcer.

Newly-elected officers of the Holy Name Society will attend.

Archduke Felix To Lecture Feb. 8

Austrian throne, as among the persons who will figure prominently in the post-war order in Europe. Some leaders insist that a lasting peace in Europe will endure only when the peoples of Europe are returned their Christian kings. The prominence in the present world scene of Felix and Otto indicates the likelihood of their re-establishment as Catholic princes of their people.

Extremely well-informed, serious minded, of engaging personality, Archduke Felix, is well equipped to trace the pattern of events abroad. What the Europe of today will contribute to the Europe of tomorrow, is the theme of his address here.

Father Hugh Haffey, C.S.B., the director of the Christian Culture lectures, has been advised by the Archduke that he will welcome any questions in the period following the lecture.

Like all the Christian Culture lectures, next Sunday evening's lecture at Aquinas is open to the public.
