AD ALTARE DEI AWARDS will be made Scout Sunday, Feb. 8 at Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral with the Rev. Albert L. Simonetti, (inset) Rochester Area Chaplain in charge of arrangements. Examinations for awards to Scouts who serve also at the altar took place Friday at Columbus Civic Centre with above Troop Chaplains in charge: First row, the Rev. Jacob R. Reuber, Troop 82 and the Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, Troop 212; Second Row, the Rev. Francis J. Taylor, Troop 200 and the Rev. Raymond Wuest, Troop 70.

25 Ad Altare Dei Awards To Be Made Scout Sunday

Catholic Boy Scouts will observe National Boy Scout Sunday, Feb. 8, at special devotional services during the day. Catholic-sponsored Troops of the Rochester Diocese will attend Mass and receive Holy Communion in their own parish churches in the morning. In the afternoon, public services will be held in the key cities throughout the Diocese, so that Scouts from all Councils may take part.

Scouts of the Rochester, Red Jacket and Genesee Councils will attend the services in the Pro-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart at 3:30 o'clock. Services will include prayers for American victory, sermon, Ad Altare Dei Cross presentations and Benediction. Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay will officiate. Rev. Albert L. Simonetti, Rochester Area Chaplain, is in charge of arrangements.

Rev. Charles J. Bruton, Chaplain of the Monroe County American Legion and Chaplain of the Rochester New York State Guard, will be the speaker.

Services in the Pro-Cathedral will begin with a colorful procession of staff and line officers of Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John, American Legion, led by George McAvoy, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus and American and Troops flag bearers. Scoutmaster William Donadoni of Troop 70 will lead the procession.

Twenty-five First Class Scouts, having qualified for the Award by serving as Altar Boys and fulfilling the other requirements, will receive the Ad Altare Dei Cross. This will mark the second presentation of the Award, which was presented for the first time at the Scout Sunday Services last year, shortly after it was introduced in this Diocese. Rev. Joseph E. Vogt, Diocesan Chaplain, will present the Awards.

Devotions will conclude with the blessing of the colors by Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, Solemn Benediction and the Star-Spangled Banner. Ushering is in charge of Scoutmasters Edward Costello, Troop 68; Milton Schaeffer, Troop 200, and Norman Huether, Troop 212.

Aquinas 2,647, St. Monica 2,477

The red-hot Aquinas bowling team won their third consecutive match game when they defeated St. Monica's last Sunday at Elm Hall. The Irish totaled 2,647 to St. Monica's 2,477. Roy Foos again paced the Irish, rolling 182, 203 and 193 for a three-game total of 578. Jack Hess followed with games of 163, 215 and 180 for his three-game total of 558. Tom Spiegel led St. Monica's, rolling 151, 176, 206 for 533.

Complete scores for the Irish were:

AT AQUINAS INSTITUTE

By DICK JEFFERY

Glee Club Chants Mass

On Monday morning, Feb. 2, the Senior Glee Club sang a High Mass, the feast being the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The group, having been formed into an antiphonal choir before the altar, presented a beautiful intonation of Gregorian Chant, under Mr. Raymond J. Hasenauer. The proper of the Mass was sung by Mr. Hasenauer, the Rev. Maurice Whelan and Rev. John Murphy.

Following the Mass, a religious conference was given by the Rev. John Onorato.

Defense First

Scores of upperclassmen at the Institute have signed up for technical training under the V. E. N. D. a national defense emergency project. Air-minded students are taking up aeronautical training under the Aviation Ground School Course, offered at several public high schools throughout the city. Others interested in electricity, sheet metal work, or machine shop are being offered these courses after school hours, from 3 to 6 P. M.

Junior Journalists Speak

At the last meeting of the "Maroon and White" staff, Father Regan, the faculty advisor, gave magazines and other periodicals on journalism to several staff members. It is Father's intention that at future meetings each member, having read a magazine, will endeavor to discuss some phase or problem in journalism, to the enlightenment of his fellow journalists.

Syracuse Trip Set For Aquinas

Aquinas Institute's cagers will journey to Syracuse this Saturday to meet the Christian Brothers' quint in the second game of a home and home series. The local Irish won the first game rather easily two weeks ago on the Dewey Ave Court.

Several hundred students plan to make the journey to Syracuse with the team on a special train which will leave the New York Central station at 8:50 P. M. Saturday.

With his squad at full strength, Mort Leary has high hopes of seeing his boys break a jinx which has been haunting Aquinas teams over since the C. B. A. series started. The jinx, of course, is the one the Brothers hold over the local five when they play at Syracuse. No Aquinas team has ever managed to beat C. B. A. in that city but the outlook for this year is very bright due mainly to the shellacking the Irish handed the brothers when they met here.

The Institute cagers were at their best last Friday night as they scored a 33 to 27 win over Sodus High School to gain revenge for an early season defeat handed them by the towners at Sodus.

Joe Culhane, pivot man for the Irish, was the star of the game, dropping in eight baskets, while Gerbino and Callahan scored 8 and 6 points respectively. For Sodus, Garlock and Warren were high scorers, Garlock getting eleven points and Warren garnering 7.

CYO High League Nears Second Round

With one more game to be added to complete the first round of the C. Y. O. High School Basketball League the team ratings are as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Holy Cross	3	0	1.000
Holy Family	2	0	1.000
St. Jerome	2	0	1.000
St. Andrew	1	2	.333
Corpus Christi	1	3	.250
St. Joseph	0	3	.000

Crucial Game Set In CYO Grammar Loop

St. Mary's Boys' five and the St. Jerome quintet have a postponed game from the first half of the league schedule yet to play. This will be the crucial game of the first half.

The team ratings for the first half are as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Mary's Boys	2	0	1.000
St. Stanislaus	2	1	.666
St. Jerome	1	1	.500
Holy Cross	0	2	.000

SCOUTING FOR CATHOLICS

Contributed by BERNARD MEYERING
and
HERMAN WALZ, JR.

Troops wishing representation in this Catholic Scout News Column are requested to send their news in to either Bernard Meyering, 245 Norton Street, or Herman Meyering, 324 Remington Street. Girl Scout Troops, as well as all Catholic Scout Groups in the Rochester Diocese are invited to send their news in too.

Scouting's highest award, the Eagle Scout Badge, was presented to John Swift at the recent Court of Honor of Troop 13, of the Immaculate Conception. The program was under the direction of the Troop Chaplain, the Rev. Donald Murphy, and Committee Chairman Paul Scottebo.

Assistant Scout Executive Dan W. Earle spoke on the war service program. A Troop display of Scout crafts, and their equipment for first aid, communications, signaling, rescue, refugee care, cooking, camping, messenger service, and cycling was also featured.

The Stag Patrol of Troop 82, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help emerged victorious in the Annual Inter-Patrol Rally, held in the school hall last Monday evening. In second place came the Blazing Arrow, followed by a tie of the Covered Wagon and the Pine Tree. By winning the rally, the Stag took over possession of first place in the Patrol Point System.

The joint communion breakfast of Boy Scout Troop 212, of Holy Family, and the Holy Name Society of that parish will be held for the fourth successive year on Scout Sunday, Feb. 8, in the school auditorium. Principal speakers for the affair will be Dan W. Earle, Assistant Scout Executive of the Rochester Council, and Lewis Schur, Secretary of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union.

Scouts are reminded that they are entitled to wear their Scout Uniforms to School during Scout Week, February 8-14. Special services for Catholic Scouts will be held at the Pro-Cathedral on Sunday, Feb. 8, at 3:30 P. M.

Members of Boy Scout Troop 70, of St. Andrew's took part in a recent pictorial pageant to mark the opening of the drive to raise funds for the new St. Mary's Hospital, held at Columbus Civic Centre. The Scouts acted as color bearers of flags of fifteen nations.

Shamrocks Lead CYA High League

The Divebombers were the winners of the first round of the C. Y. A. High School Intramural League. With two games having been played in the second round, the ratings of the teams are as follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Shamrocks	2	0	1.000
Divebombers	1	1	.500
Shaddracks	1	1	.500
Ringers	0	2	.000
