Nazareth Mission Unit Presents "White Hands"

By BONNIE GARDNER
The religious play, "White Hands," will be presented by the Fremlin Mission Unit of Nazareth College on Monday evening, Feb. 23, at 8:30 P. M.

This play will mark the first performance to be given in the new Auditorium, and will furnish an opportunity for those attending to see the new Nazareth College. Such veteran performers as Mildred Curlin, Rosemary Tierney, Wilma Kenning, Mary E. Brennan, Mary Harris, Margaret Culhane, Mary A. Usher, Margaret Volpe and Gerry Luppas are taking part.

The College Orchestra will play both before and after the program and a selected choir will sing during the four tableaux ending the play.

Jesuit Speaks on Alaska
Student Hour, on Feb. 26, will be given over to a talk by Father Edmund A. Anabel, S.J., who has just returned from Alaska. Since Alaska is so prominent in world affairs, his talk should be especially illuminating.

Lectures on Rural Life
One of the most significant talks ever given at Nazareth was had this week when Msgr. Luigi G. Ligutti, Executive Secretary of the National Catholic Rural Life Conference, addressed the students on Monday.

Monsignor Ligutti spoke on the importance of living on the land from both the religious and national standpoint. Many of the angles he stressed are not often brought to the attention of students.

NEW IDEAS A Novel Gift Idea FOR HOME-MAKERS

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

A Seat by the Fire Costs Nothing
Not a cent was spent for this attractive seat. The barrel for the foundation was in the basement; the cotton padding was taken from an old comforter; the top cover was made from a discarded blue jacket, and the full skirt from the best parts of old blue and tan striped draperies. Even the tacks were on hand and, glory be, the elastic was tucked away in a machine drawer.

Instead of buying elastic, cord or strips of fabric may be run through the casings in the band at the top of the skirt and drawn up tightly.

NEXT WEEK: New Uses for a Kitchen Cabinet.

NOTE: Another good looking ottoman seat made from a box is described in Book 1, of the series of homemaking booklets which Mrs. Spears has prepared for readers. If you are a bit more ambitious, there are directions in BOOK 6 for a chair and a davenport made from standard widths of boards. Books are 10 cents each, if ordered direct from Mrs. Ruth Wyeth Spears, CATHOLIC COURIER, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester, N. Y. (Copyright)

Mercy Guild Holds Meeting

The Mercy Guild of the Little Flower held its regular monthly business meeting on Friday, Feb. 13, in the Hotel Seneca. Mrs. John Gould, president of the Guild, presided at the business meeting, after which cards were played and refreshments served. Chairman of the Hostesses was Mrs. Joseph Ritz. She was assisted by Mrs. George Conway, Mrs. Bernard Gross, Mrs. Grace Bettler, Mrs. James Pellack, Mrs. Elmer Hohman, Mrs. Charles Goetz, Mrs. Jennie Comfort, Mrs. John Caris, Mrs. Joseph Eckl and Miss Ann Hall.

Heads Commission

Rita Schaefer, senior at Trinity College, Washington, who heads the National Commission on International Relations of the National Federation of Catholic College Students. Trinity College holds the national chairmanship and will assist in the development of regional and local commissions. The commission will train leaders for the propagation of the Papal Peace plan. WEDDINGS

Doyle - Beattie
A very pretty wedding took place in Our Mother of Sorrows (century-old) Church on Saturday, Feb. 7, when Miss Evelyn Beattie, daughter of Mrs. M. Beatty of Janes Road, became the bride of Joseph Doyle of Bardin St. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke who also read the nuptial Mass. Mrs. Robert Fleming, sister of the bride, was her attendant, and Edward J. Hunt, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. After returning from a short motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle are residing at 470 Janes Road.

Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. C. W. 536 Columbus Civic Centre

On the first Friday of this month a Mass with benediction following was said for the men of Sacred Heart parish who are in the service of our country. Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns announced that a similar Mass will be offered on each first Friday under the sponsorship of the Rosary Society of Sacred Heart parish.

The Volunteer Registration office at 15 State St., operating under the direction of the Rochester Defense Council, is open from 10:00 A. M. to 8:30 P. M. daily, and is ready to enroll all women of the community.

The Rochester Defense Council believes that our organization plays an important part in community defense. It is highly essential, therefore, that all women actively connected with our organization register without delay.

Feb. 9 to 23 has been designated as the registration period. Only a limited time remains.

Prompt registration of our members will be a very real service to the cause of defense in Rochester.

Remember the Call to Youth program Saturday, Feb. 21, 1:30 to 1:45 P. M. EST

The dramatization this week will be entitled "The Army Behind the Army."

The series is under the leadership of Miss Anna Sarachon Hooley, Chairman of the N.C.C.W. Youth Committee.

The regular meeting of Rochester Deanery Council, N.C.C.W., will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 27, at 8:15 P. M. in Room 511, Columbus Civic Centre.

Important Announcement will be made concerning our coming national convention April 18 to 22, to be held in Hollywood, Florida. Plan now to attend the meeting.
