Blessed Sacrament Parish

FATHER MALONEY LEAVES FOR ARMY

Responding to the need of his country, Rev. John Maloney, assistant at Blessed Sacrament parish, is leaving us this week to take up new duties as chaplain in the United States Army. He has been ordered to report at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Indiana, on Feb. 24.

At an informal reception last Sunday evening in the School Auditorium many of the parishioners gathered to say goodbye to Father Maloney and to wish him much success in his new work. On this occasion he was presented with a check for $1,000 as a material manifestation of the affection and esteem of the members of the parish. A few weeks ago at the annual banquet of the Holy Name Society he received a Mass kit for chaplains from the men of the Society. Father Maloney has been an assistant at Blessed Sacrament for nearly six years, and while his departure will be greatly regretted by the parish, he is assured of the prayers of the people he has served so faithfully during that time.

Lenten Services

In order to make it possible for everyone to follow out the Bishop's suggestion of daily Mass during Lent the hours of weekday Masses have been changed for the holy season. There will be three Masses each morning, at 6:30, 7:30 and 8:30. The Masses are being arranged at these hours because it was thought that they would thus suit the convenience of a majority of our parishioners.

Evening devotions during Lent will be held on Wednesday and Fridays at 7:45. On Wednesdays there will be Rosary, sermon by John M. Duffy, superintendent of the Catholic schools of the diocese, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. On Fridays there will be the Stations of the Cross and Benediction.

A large group of altar boys, choir boys and members of the traffic patrol squad enjoyed their annual party last Friday afternoon in the Church Hall. This is an event that the boys look forward to eagerly each year, and as usual they thoroughly enjoyed the sandwiches, cake, ice cream and movies that are part of the program.

The Red Cross benefitted from two social events in the parish recently. Profits from the Sodality Card Party of last Monday and from the last of the Thursday evening socials were turned over to this worthy work.

The parish Discussion Group on the Bible will hold its first meeting following the Stations of the Cross tomorrow evening in the Church Hall.

CORPUS CHRISTI PARISH

'THE LENTEN SPIRIT'

Sermons series by Bishop Kearney opens Friday, Feb. 20, at 7:45 P. M. at Corpus Christi. The Bishop will speak on the subject, "The Lenten Spirit." Rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will complete the service each Friday evening.

Stations of the Cross each Wednesday at 7:45 P. M. followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. All should attend the public Lenten Services on Wednesday and Friday evenings.

The Rev. Joseph Lynch of the Society of St. Peter the Apostle will be at Corpus Christi on Sunday, Mar. 1, to enlist our prayers and our aims for this organization and its work of fostering native vocations in missionary countries. Bishop Kearney has assigned to each parish one such missionary appeal each year; to Father Lynch has been assigned Corpus Christi Parish. Your contribution to this zealous worker for our missionary priesthood will be a real help in the promotion of native vocations to the Holy Priesthood.

Daily Mass and Frequent Communion during Lent will be part of the program of the devout people of the parish. Weekday Masses are at 6:30, 7:00, 8:00 A. M.

Necessity Mass each Sunday at 12:15 P. M. For the duration of Wartime, that an extra convenience may be extended, particularly to those who are working long hours in defense work. We urge those attending this Mass to receive Holy Communion, as do those attending the earlier Masses.

First Mass each Sunday begins at 7:00 A. M. Holy Communion is given before and during this Mass. There is no 6:00 o'clock Mass on Sundays.

Red Cross First Aid Classes begin tonight (Thursday, Feb. 19) in the Church Hall. All women are invited to take this course. Register by signing a card and dropping it in the box on Sunday.

Diocesan Needs Collection Sunday, Feb. 22, 1942. At the Offertory on this Sunday, the annual collection for the Diocese of Rochester will be taken up at all the Masses. Envelopes are to be used and all are expected to give to this essential collection for maintenance of diocesan activities and payment of diocesan obligations. Bishop Kearney carries on the work of the diocese in fulfillment of his obligation as Bishop. He labors for us, plans for us, maintains diocesan offices for the Chancery, the Schools, Catechetical Work, all for us and for our children. He looks to us also for the funds with which to meet the expenses connected with this work. Of Corpus Christi Parish he asks $975.00 for the current year. Gifts of $10.00 and $5.00 will help us reach this amount with the ordinary gift suggested as $2.00 per person. As a loyal Catholic, as a faithful supporter of your Bishop you will want to do all you can to help him in his work. The Diocesan Needs Collection of the coming Sunday (Feb. 22) is your opportunity to help

Monday Novena in honor of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal continues as usual each Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Maintaining our record for attendance at this devotion while we undertake a program of attendance at the Evening Lenten Devotions, will bring many blessings into our souls during this Holy Season.

Sunday Offering Envelopes have been in use by adults since the beginning of the year. The children also are asked to use the special envelopes, prepared for them in making their Sunday offering. Children not of our parish school, may call in the vestry on Sunday for a set. Our school children receive their sets through the school.

Inter-Faith Group Cites Common Beliefs

Celebration of National Brotherhood Week in Rochester was marked by an announcement of certain basic convictions in which Catholics, Protestants and Jews share belief.

This statement was issued by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, V. G., chairman, and the Rev. Hugh Chamberlain Burr, DD, secretary of the Inter-Faith Goodwill Committee.

Similar statements were made throughout the country symbolizing the unity which has been developed by the three creeds.

These common convictions were described as:

- 1—Belief in one God, creator and sustainer of the Universe.
- 2—Rejection of all attempts to explain man in "merely material terms."
- 3—Belief that God's "all-holy will" is the ultimate sanction of human morality, and rejection of all deterministic interpretations of man.
- 4—Belief that education or social theories which state man's destiny, standards and happiness without reference to god are "doomed to failure."
- 5—Belief that "God's fatherly providence" extends equally to every human being and rejection of theories of race which affirm the essential superiority of one racial strain over another.
- 6—Belief that the republican form of government is "most desirable for our nation and for countries of similarly democratic traditions"; belief that political forms can bring liberty and happiness to a society "only when moral and religious principles are accepted and practiced."
- 7—Belief that individual rights are an endowment from God; and rejection of all forms of this principle as "certain to result in the enslavement of man."
