LENTEN SERVICES

Large numbers are assisting at Mass and receiving Holy Communion daily during the season of Lent.

The addition of a Mass at 12:15 on Sundays in no way interferes with the rest of the regular schedule of Sunday Masses.

The Lenten series of sermons is being preached by Rev. John M. Duffy, M.A., on Wednesday evenings.

The Stations of the Cross are held publicly on Sunday afternoons during Lent at 3:45, followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The first meeting of the Parish Discussion group on the Bible was held last Friday evening following Stations.

The Red Cross First Aid class will meet as usual in the School Auditorium on Tuesday evenings.

With their usual zeal for such causes, the children of the school collected a large number of rosaries, prayer-book and other religious articles for the men in service.

Nun-Nurse Aids Surgeon In Four-Hour Operation While Planes Bomb City

MARYKNOLL, N. Y.—During a four-hour surgical operation performed in Loting, South China, while enemy planes were flying above, the only American trained nurse in the city, Sister Monica Marie Boyle of Minersville, Pa., assisted the only doctor there, also an American.

Because of the prevalent scarcity of food and the diseases resulting from undernourishment, Catholic missionaries in China, now entering upon the fifth year of war, are often the only source of aid for helpless hordes of sick and shelterless.
