St. Hyacinth's Cling To Top

Three hard fought games provided plenty of thrills for the large crowd of fans who turned out to watch the Catholic League teams in action last Tuesday evening, Feb. 17 on the Roman A. C. Court.

In the evening's opener St. Francis hung a 63 to 36 crusher on the St. Mary's quint. The first half was close with the winners holding a 20 to 17 edge at the intermission. The game continued to be a nip and tuck affair throughout the third period but in the final quarter the St. Francis boys went into high gear and scored 17 points to leave the St. Mary's team far in the rear. For the winners Mike Glannon was high man with 14 points. Bud Krause set the pace for the losers, scoring 15 counters.

St. Hyacinth's quint continued to set a blistering pace, hanging up their ninth straight win by downing the Columbian Squires of St. Alphonsus Church by a 41 to 26 margin. The League leaders had trouble getting started and at the end of the first half were down to the Squires by 20 to 12 score. In the last half however the winners began to find the range, scoring 19 points in the final period, while holding their opponents to 4 counters. Kolt with 18 points paced the victors attack while Piccaro started for the losers with 13 points.

St. Peter and Paul quint edged out St. Florian in the final game of the evening by a 23 to 27 score. The game was close all the way with both teams holding and losing the lead several times during the contest. Before the St. Peter and Paul boys finally came through in victory Kuller started for the winners with 12 points and Paul Piccaro paced the losers with 14 points.

Holy Family's quint drew the bye for the week.

LITTLE DEEDS

A little spring had lost its way Amid the grass and fern; A passing stranger scooped a well Where weary men might turn; He walled it in and hung with care A ladle to the brink-- He thought not of the deed he did But judged that 'till might drink. He passed again, and lo! the well, By Summers never dried, Had cooled ten thousand parching tongues And saved a life beside.

Give the Red Cross little or much, it needs "all-out" help.

MARYKNOLL NEWS FROM HAWAII

Good morning, boys and girls! I suppose, like Mother and Dad, you, too, are concerned about war news from Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, China, and all the countries engaged in warfare. You know from your study of the missions that you have many friends in these places, and you are anxious to know how they are getting along. We have just received a letter from Mother Mary Joseph, Superior of the Maryknoll Sisters, giving us a first-hand account of the happenings in these places where the Maryknoll priests and sisters have been, and still are working so zealously. We shall let you read a bit from Mother's letter: "From Hawaii we received today some graphic accounts of happenings on Dec. 7. On their way to an outlying mission to notify the nearest priest of many injuries reported at a terrific fire, some Sisters were caught in a rain of machine gun bullets on an exposed hilltop. The smoke and planes above they had ascribed to man oeuvres. Suddenly a shell burst behind the nearest house. Five feet ahead of them fell a shower of bullets. Someone ran out of the house with the radio news of an enemy attack, and offered the Sisters shelter. They insisted, however, on returning home in order to safeguard the Blessed Sacrament in case their convent caught fire. Finding all roads closed to traffic, they crawled some three miles along an old abandoned trail through barbed wire fences and thick underbrush.

One of the Sisters reported a rather amusing incident to relieve the grave seriousness of the situation. Their first inkling of an attack was the sound of bombing during the Children's Mass on the morning of Dec. 7. They thought it was target practice. It proved very difficult to convince the people that it was war. This is no sham battle. This is the "real McCoy," said one radio announcer. One of the Chinese consul's children, who attends the Sisters' School tried to find "McCoy" in his dictionary!

What a surprise we had this week! A great big envelope arrived from St. Mary's School, Corning, with a big check of $37.50. We learned upon reading the letter that $22.50 was for Holy Childhood dues, and $15.00 for adoptions. One was to be an African baby from the White Sisters' mission who is to receive the name Teresa Ann. Paul Grady and Josephine Brennan were chosen godparents. And then there were two Negro babies from Selma, Alabama. One is to be named John with Richard Vinicki and Rita Grady as his godparents; and the other to be named Helen Anastasia with Joseph Keefe and May Capizzi as godparents. Sister tells us that this last little baby was ransomed by Clara Maloney, who has always been one of the most zealous little mission workers in the Diocese.

Three ransoms were contained in the envelope proudly presented us by St. Andrew's School. The Fifth Grade South want Helen Batzold, an African girl, with Eugene Salvatori and Patricia Allen for the godparents; a Chinese named Mary de Lourdes is the choice of the Sixth Grade North who have elected Charles Bauerschmidt and Dorothy Fedigan as sponsors; from the far northland comes a request for a little Eskimo boy to be named John Michael at the request of the First Grade South. Many, many thanks to you, boys and girls, for your continued interest in the missions.

"After making many sacrifices we have at last our second $3.00 to ransom a Chinese baby girl.

The boys beat on the last race and ransomed a Chinese boy. We are going to name this little baby after our Blessed Mother and dear St. Joseph. So, please christen her Mary Josephine. We are doing this for success in our studies. Will you please pray for the Fifth and Sixth Grades?" Jean Stegried, 5th and 6th Grades, Nativity, Brockport.

Many thanks to you, Joan, and all your classmates. Believe me, sacrifice like this will not go unrewarded, and I predict that all of you will get 100% in everything! "Enclosed please find $5.00 for a baby boy, Jude Joseph. You may purchase it from wherever you wish. It is a gift to our Lady of Lourdes." Seventh Grade, St. Vincent, Corning.

Our Lady of Lourdes must have been very pleased with your gift in honor of her feast day. She will protect little Jude Joseph, you may be sure.

From Holy Family School, Auburn, we learn that the Second Grade would like a little Negro boy named Joseph. Along with this they send $4.00 for dues. Many thanks to all of you!

Frederick Loder of the Sixth Grade, Blessed Sacrament School, wrote us a very nice letter telling us about their adoption of a little Negro boy from Selma who is to be named John Anthony after Father Maloney from their parish who recently left to serve as Chaplain in the U. S. Army. His godparents are Barbara Cooney and Robert Knapp.

And from Marie Yatteau we received another nice letter telling about another ransom from the Sixth Grade, a Negro girl from Selma, to be named Marie Claudia after their teacher Her godparents are Robert Stoetzel and Dana Breene. This is a fine report, Sixth Graders, and we are most grateful to you.

The Second Grade, Room 3 of Sacred Heart School, would like a little Negro girl from Selma to be named Janet Currier Janet will be very happy because of your sacrifices.

Just sliding in under the wire is the Seventh Grade South of St. Andrew's with Anne Catherine, a little Eskimo girl who has Kathleen Schneider and Oliver Smith for her godparents. And the Second Grade North sent along $3.00 for dues for which we are most grateful.

LIVERPOOL CATHEDRAL'S ONE-MAN CONSTRUCTION CREW CALLED TO COLORS

By George Barnard
LONDON (NC)—The lone worker on construction work at Liverpool Cathedral has been called to the colors, and building work has ceased.
Arthur Ronald Brady, 19, started work as an apprentice on the site when he was 14, and when all the other workers were called off the job he went on laying his 500 bricks a day, sometimes cheered by a visit from the Archbishop of Liverpool, the Most Rev. Richard Downey.

The masons will go on working, however, so that when conditions permit the return of the builders there will be plenty of material to work upon.
Most of the work already accomplished on the Cathedral construction is underground. The crypt corridor is a typical completed section. It measures 260 feet by 28. The chapel of the Crucifixion, also underground, is completed. It has not been formally opened for use as it is doing duty as an air raid shelter.

NEW YORK.—A three-fold program of cooperation by Catholic college graduates with the extensive work being done by civilians for the men in the armed forces was outlined by Dr. Franklin Dunham, Executive Director of the National Catholic Community Service, member agency of the USO, in an address here.

Speaking at the Communion breakfast of the Alumnae Association of the College of Mt. St. Vincent held at the Hotel Commodore, Dr. Dunham urged that Catholics get to know the extensive work being done by the NCCS and the other member agencies of the USO and make it widely known among others not informed; that they "adopt" a man in service and, finally, pray for the men in the armed forces.

Tells Students Youth Is Country's Hope

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — On the youth of today depends "the very hope of the home, country and in fact civilization," University of Florida students were told in a series of lectures by the Rev. Martin Gilligan, of the Cathedral, St. Augustine.

Speaking in Crane Hall on the University Campus, Father Gilligan stressed the current importance of principles of right living and moral conduct. "Youth has vision," he said, "and once directed rightly in the paths of rectitude will scarcely depart therefrom."
