Father Brien To Address Corning Club

CORNING — The Catholic Men's Luncheon Club of Corning this week was to hear the Rev. William J. Brien, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Elmira, as its guest speaker Friday noon at the Baron Steuben Hotel.

This was announced Monday by Paul Tammaro, who said he felt especially fortunate in having Father Brien accept an invitation to talk.

The Corning group has met with an enthusiastic response from the Catholic men of Corning and each week has drawn a steadily-increased attendance to the luncheon meetings. All Catholic men of the city are welcome. Reservations must be filed with club members or at the hotel office.

Attorney Burke Heard

CORNING — Attorney James Burke of Elmira addressed the Catholic Men's Luncheon Club at the Baron Steuben last Friday noon. Eugene Kelley, president, appointed the Rev. John Newcomb, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, as chaplain.

Attorney Burke warned his listeners that it is not well to be too complacent about the outcome of the war. He advised the men not to be timid about criticizing leaders if criticism is due, reminding them that timely criticism is the early days of the war kept the English government alive.

"It is the first time," said Attorney Burke, "that an international effort has ever been made to carry out the words of Our Lord 'Love Thy Neighbor.'"
